Teens Talkin Faith A Christian Perspective:

Teens Talkin' Faith Michelle L. Trujillo, 2001-10 Trujillo has compiled a collection of passages from teens across the nation that readers will find relevant to their own life as they embark on spiritual journeys Chicken Soup for the Soul Presents Teens Talkin' Faith Jack Canfield, Mark Victor Hansen, 2012-09-25 If you are a teenager this book is for you Regardless of whether you consider yourself to be strong in your faith or if you currently question the reality of God this collection of teen writings will touch your heart and encourage your spiritual growth Reaching Out to Religious Youth L. Kay Carman, 2004-06-30 Presents a guide to services programs and collections for youth committed to their religious beliefs covering Protestantism evangelical Christianity Catholicism Islam Judaism and other religious traditions

Teenagers' Perspectives on the Role of Religion in their Lives, Schools and Societies. A European Quantitative Study Pille Valk, Gerdien Bertram-Troost, Markus Friederici, Céline Béraud, 2009 Religion is on the European agenda again The secularisation paradigm has lost its explanatory power and the newly coined term post secularism is used to describe the realisation that in the current social transformation religion cannot be ignored any longer The quantitative study presented in this book is part of the research effort by the REDCo project REDCo is the abbreviation for Religion in Education A contribution to Dialogue or a Factor of Conflict in Transforming Societies of European Countries The project brought together nine research teams from eight European countries England Estonia France Germany The Netherlands Norway Russia and Spain The research involved interdisciplinary cooperation between specialists in the different academic fields of education religious education sociology political science anthropology psychology theology and religious studies The book offers valuable interpretations and inspirations on the question how the students in the 14-16 year age group in Europe see the irrelevance of religions for dialogue and conflict in their daily lives in the school environment and in society as a whole The young respondents of the quantitative study are clearly aware that the diversity of religious and non religious worldviews is the reality of the European contexts they have to manage within Most of them are convinced that religion must be addressed in schools as it is too important as factor in social life and for the coexistence of people from different cultural and religious backgrounds throughout Europe to be ignored God's Devotional Book for Teens John C. Maxwell, 2004-12 Honor Books presents bigger better versions of the mega best selling God's Little Devotional Book Series We have added fascinating new features throughout the books such as New Insights into Ageless Questions Top Ten Tips Who's Who Lighten Up Do You Measure Up FYI Book Lists Fun Trivia and Wise Words to enhance the compelling devotional stories and reflections Vibrant full colour illustrations and photos highlight the message of God's love care and power Each devotion is designed to reveal God's insights and encourage the reader to pursue a deeper relationship with Him GirlTalk / GodTalk Joyce Mercer, 2008-04 In this refreshing account of the faith lives of adolescent girls and the roles parents play in shaping that faith 50 girls from 12 different denominations tell deeply personal stories about what it means to be young female and Christian

The Faith of Girls Revd Dr Anne Phillips, 2013-06-28 Exploring the spirituality and faith of girls on the verge of adolescence this book presents fresh insights into children's spirituality and their transition to adulthood Phillips has listened to girls' voices speaking in depth on the themes of self, God, church and world and reflected on their experiences and understandings in the light of current psychological, philosophical and sociological thinking all placed into dialogue with a feminist approach to contemporary theology and bible Phillips offers wombhood as a metaphor for their transition to young adulthood and suggests strategies faith communities might adopt to companion girls more effectively through the fragility of puberty This book will appeal to all those exploring areas of youth ministry, pastoral care, Christian education, nurture and childhood studies, psychology and theology School Library Journal, 2001

Let's Talk Harold Heie, 2021-12-10 The state of public discourse in America is dismal reflecting an extreme us versus them tribalism where me and my folks have the full truth about the contentious issue at hand and those other folks are devoid of any truth and can even be demonized as evil Rather than just cursing this darkness Harold Heie presents what he considers to be a better way for those who disagree about contentious issues to respectfully engage one another a way that is deeply informed by his Christian faith perspective a way that reflects his understanding that to listen carefully to those who disagree with you and to then talk respectfully about your disagreements is a deep expression of the love for others to which Jesus calls all those who claim to be his followers But this book is not just an abstract consideration of the nature of civil public discourse Rather drawing on his successes and failures the beautiful and the ugly in his attempts to orchestrate respectful conversations on contentious issues both online and in small group face to face meetings during the past decade Heie presents practical concrete proposals for how to talk to one another about significant disagreements particularly in Christian churches that have tragically succumbed to tribalism

The Faith of Girls Anne Phillips, 2011 Exploring the spirituality and faith of girls on the verge of adolescence Phillips presents fresh insights into children's spirituality and their transition to adulthood Phillips has listened to girls speaking on the themes of self, God, church and world and reflected on their experiences and understandings in the light of current thinking all placed into dialogue with a feminist approach to contemporary theology and the bible This book will appeal to all those exploring areas of youth ministry, pastoral care, Christian education, nurture and childhood studies, psychology and theology

52 Discussions to Confirm the Faith of Your Teenagers David Lynn, Rick Davis, 2009-12-27 If you're tired of the Christianese answers you're getting from the teens in your youth group challenge them to discuss issues of faith and discover what they believe With these one page reproducible handouts that are easy to use and can facilitate meaningful discussions in your youth group, Sunday school, small group or confirmation class teens will explore God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, the Bible, salvation, discipleship and more

Guest Pass: Access To Your Teen's World Yumi Bryana Cha, 2011 Guest Pass Access To Your Teen's World gives you a back stage entry to tour your teen's world It is co-written by a mother, psychologist and daughter high school junior who discuss topics relevant to today's teenage culture from multiple perspectives This book

explores parent teen issues related to the use of social network media body art emotional distress substance use and more Although the specifics of parents adolescents and their relationships are unique there are common challenges that arise during this developmental stage Guest Pass Access to Your Teen s World provides theoretical analysis and clinical research to facilitate your understanding of your teenagers Each chapter also includes exercises for self assessment questions to explore with your adolescents and practical suggestions on how to apply what you have learned By increasing your knowledge you will be better equipped to build healthier relationships with your teens Almost Christian Kenda Creasy Dean,2010-07-16 The National Study of Youth and Religion asserts that instead of consequential faith most American teenagers practice Moralistic Therapeutic Deism a superficial low commitment self serving spirituality that seems to characterize many American churches Dean believes that churches must recover a missional mindset the conviction that we are not here for ourselves and that consequential faith begins by helping teenagers parents and congregations reclaim de centering practices like translation testimony and spiritual detachment what the mystics called the ability to focus on God and others instead of ourselves Drawing on a major national study this volume argues that the Church has failed to instill genuine religious passion in American teenagers Islam: Global Christian Perspectives Wageeh Mikhail,2024-07-30 There are hundreds of books on Islam after all it is the second largest religion on the planet Few however are the books written by Christian scholars of Islam who live and work in Muslim majority countries Here lies the value of this current volume It addresses Islam Islamic history Islamic theology and Christian Muslim relations from global Christian perspectives where contributors describe experiences and narratives of conversations obstacles cohabitation understanding and cooperative efforts between Christians and Muslims in a variety of Middle Eastern African and Asian nations including Egypt Ghana India Jordan Lebanon and Nigeria This book treats Islam academically and from a Christian standpoint Authors discuss historical interactions between Christians and Muslims and where relevant current avenues for work for the common good

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2003-12 Faith Ed Linda K. Wertheimer,2016-08-23 An intimate cross country look at the new debate over religion in the public schools A suburban Boston school unwittingly started a firestorm of controversy over a sixth grade field trip The class was visiting a mosque to learn about world religions when a handful of boys unnoticed by their teachers joined the line of worshippers and acted out the motions of the Muslim call to prayer A video of the prayer went viral with the title Wellesley Massachusetts Public School Students Learn to Pray to Allah Charges flew that the school exposed the children to Muslims who intended to convert American schoolchildren Wellesley school officials defended the course but also acknowledged the delicate dance teachers must perform when dealing with religion in the classroom Courts long ago banned public school teachers from preaching of any kind But the question remains How much should schools teach about the world s religions Answering that question in recent decades has pitted schools against their communities Veteran education journalist Linda K Wertheimer spent months with that class and traveled to other communities around the nation

listening to voices on all sides of the controversy including those of clergy teachers children and parents who are Muslim Jewish Christian Sikh or atheist In Lumberton Texas nearly a hundred people filled a school board meeting to protest a teacher s dress up exercise that allowed freshman girls to try on a burka as part of a lesson on Islam In Wichita Kansas a Messianic Jewish family s opposition to a bulletin board display about Islam in an elementary school led to such upheaval that the school had to hire extra security Across the country parents have requested that their children be excused from lessons on Hinduism and Judaism out of fear they will shy away from their own faiths But in Modesto a city in the heart of California s Bible Belt teachers have avoided problems since 2000 when the school system began requiring all high school freshmen to take a world religions course Students receive comprehensive lessons on the three major world religions as well as on Sikhism Hinduism Buddhism and often Shintoism Taoism and Confucianism One Pentecostal Christian girl terrified by idols including a six inch gold Buddha learned to be comfortable with other students beliefs Wertheimer s fascinating investigation which includes a return to her rural Ohio school which once ran weekly Christian Bible classes reveals a public education system struggling to find the right path forward and offers a promising roadmap for raising a new generation of religiously literate Americans The Faith Lives of Women and Girls Nicola Slee,Fran Porter,Anne Phillips,2016-03-16 Identifying illuminating and enhancing understanding of key aspects of women and girls faith lives The Faith Lives of Women and Girls represents a significant body of original qualitative research from practitioners and researchers across the UK Contributors include new and upcoming researchers as well as more established feminist practical theologians Chapters provide perspectives on different ages and stages of faith across the life cycle from a range of different cultural and religious contexts Diverse spiritual practices beliefs and attachments are explored including a variety of experiences of liminality in women s faith lives A range of approaches ethnographic oral history action research interview studies case studies and documentary analysis combine to offer a deeper understanding of women s and girls faith lives As well as being of interest to researchers this book presents resources to enhance ministry to and with women and girls in a variety of settings

Passing on the Faith James L. Heft,2009-08-25 From the beginning the Abrahamic faiths Judaism Christianity and Islam have stressed the importance of transmitting religious identity from one generation to the next Today that sustaining mission has never been more challenged Will young people have a faith to guide them How can faith traditions anchor religious attachments in this secular skeptical culture The fruit of a historic gathering of scholars and religious leaders across three faiths and many disciplines this important book reports on the religious lives of young people in today s world It s also a unique inventory of creative and thoughtful responses from churches synagogues and mosques working to keep religion a significant force in those lives The essays are grouped thematically Opening the book Melchor Sanchez de Toca and Nancy Ammerman explore fundamental issues that have an impact on religion from the cultural effects of global consumerism and personal technology to pluralism and individualism In Part Two leading investigators present three leading studies of religiosity among young people and college students in the United States illuminating the gap between personal values and organized religion and the emergence of new different forms of spirituality and faith How religious institutions deal with these challenges forms the heart of the book in portraits of best practices developed to revitalize traditional institutions from a synagogue in New York City and a Muslim youth camp in California to the famed French Catholic community of the late Brother John of Taiz Finally Jack Miles and Diane Winston weave the findings into a broader perspective of the future of religious belief practice and feeling in a changing world Filled with real world wisdom Passing the Faith will be an essential resource for anyone seeking to understand what religions must and can do to inspire a vigorous faith in the next generation
