Caught Between Two Guns C. Arthur Ellis Jr. PhD, 2023-02-28 On a hot Florida summer day in August 1952 Ruby McCollum the wealthy African American wife of Suwannee County's Bolita King murdered Dr C LeRoy Adams a beloved white physician and recently elected state senator The sensational murder trial was widely covered in newspapers ranging from the New York Times to The Times in London and was the first of its kind since 1855 Now the story of a forbidden interracial love affair gone wrong is recounted by an author who was a neighbor to the McCollum family and delivered by Dr Adams Dr Ellis odyssey to discover the truth behind the murder began with locating the lost transcript of the trial which was both manually transcribed and wire recorded He then published an annotated copy to discredit statements by some scholars that McCollum was not allowed to testify in her own defense In the Afterword of this book Ellis now addresses McCollum's most telling statements to her attorneys I was caught between two guns and I don't know whether I did right or whether I did wrong and proposes an intriguing moral alternative to societally defined concepts of right and wrong for African Americans who lived in the Jim Crow South

Be the Adult F. Lance Hoopes, 2024-04-16 I will never forget the moment I first learned to Be the Adult It was in my first job as an administrator after many years of teaching I bested a kid in a passionate argument and sent him back to class while my boss and mentor looked on I glowed with pride until he quietly deflated me with the five words that changed the rest of my career Remember Lance You're the adult That phrase floods my mind with stories the stories in this book Some are heroic some are embarrassing but all of them can help you learn what I learned I had to be the adult in a band room facing hostile kids and facing students who played a passage so beautifully it brought tears to my eyes I had to be the adult on 110 degree Tucson Arizona football fields in band buses far from home and facing concerned superintendents and furious teachers as an administrator Schools can and do change students for the better but only on one condition Someone has to Be the Adult make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Four plays by writers who have worked under the auspices of the Office for Advanced Drama Research O A D R at the University of Minnesota are published in this volume the thirteenth in the series of such collections The O A D R program which is directed by Arthur H Ballet the series editor provides an opportunity for promising playwrights to work with cooperating theatres in the production of their plays The plays in this volume are The Tunes of Chicken Little by Robert Gordon The Inheritance by Ernest A Joselovitz Blessing by Joseph Landon and The Kramer by Mark Medoff Three of the plays those by Robert Gordon Joseph Landon and Mark Medoff were produced by the American Conservatory Theatre of San Francisco The play by Mr Joselovitz was presented by the University of Minnesota Theatre in Minneapolis In his introduction Mr Ballet comments on the achievements and problems of the O A D R program He reports that since the program began it had had about one hundred plays produced in some sixty theatres not only in the United States but also in Australia New Zealand Scotland and Canada However he writes it became increasingly difficult to find playhouses willing to risk the challenge of new plays and playwrights More dangerous still he writes has been the tendency for some directors to make theatre their own highly personal art Because so many of these directors only like what they know and they don t know what to make of new work at all they cannot truly judge and anticipate as a stage piece anything beyond their immediate ken The rejections are cavalier and unthinking The directors lament that there are no new exciting playwrights must be answered with the accusation that there really are damned few new exciting perceptive directors Alton Locke Charles
