The Temples of Anking and Their Cults John Knight Shryock,1931 The Temples of Anking and their cults John Shryock,1931 The Temples of Anking and Their Cults. A Study of Modern Chinese Religion. A Thesis, Etc John Knight Shryock,1931 The Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science ,1916 The Temples of Anking and Their Cults John Knight Shryock,1931 Journal Of Urusvati Himalayan Research Institute Roerich Museum,2003-08 The Journal of the Urusvati Himalayan Research Institute U J represents the multi layered perceptions of the Roerichs who sought new integration of cultural patterns and scientific frontiers in ever expanding horizons Every volume contains a contribution on archaeology as a science to reveal how nations became powerful and why they fell They are a lesson for the governments of today who must act upon them Sir Flinders Petrie UJ 1 11 The art of excavation by Count du Buisson UJ 1 13 links the art of archaeology with the technique of medicine for all scientific methods are observing facts experimentation and manifestation His excavations at Qatna show the guiding principles methodology and discoveries of excavation The second volume of the Journal carries a report of the important discoveries in Indian archaeology at Taxila Mohenjo daro Stein s explorations in Baluchistan and Waziristan and so on The third volume relates some outstanding discoveries in Baluchistan Taxila Mohenjo daro Sarnath Nalanda Paharpur Nagarjunakonda Pagan and Afghanistan They have changed the historiography of India and today they bring back the thrill of discovery as we read them seventy years after their reportage in this Journal in 1933 George Roerich 1 27f himself writes on the problems of Tibetan archaeology and the several desiderata in this terra incognita in his day In the second volume the diary of the 1931 expedition to Western Tibet of Dr W N Koelz is vivid account of the region in its prime simplicity The Peking Temple of the Eastern Peak Anne Swann Goodrich,2024-12-11 The Tung yUeh Miao in Peking is a veritable pantheon housing hundreds of deities with scores of attendants presided over by the Great God of the Eastern Peak Mrs Goodrich in her delightful narrative relates the stories of these deities how they came to be deified how they secured the faith and trust of thousands of devotees and how they managed to accomodate themselves to each other without interfering with the rights and responsibilities of the neighboring deities Here is the story of how a faithful people common fold gradually built up a religious syncretistic system happily free from any shackles of logic and historical accuracy Yet it worked so well that the Chinese flocked to this temple at regular intervals If there is a popular demand a common need a private hope or anxiety there must be a deity who answers to it If not people will create such a deity and show that its worship is not useless and therefore justified Anne S Goodrich lived in China for seven years spending most of her time in Peking but making trips that took her as far north as Jehol and as far south as Changsha and Canton In 1923 she married L Carrington Goodrich With her husband she has traveled extensively in Asia Janet R Ten Broeck made detailed studies of the Tung yUeh Miao part of which she has published together with Dr Yiu Tung in T oung Pao XL 1950 1951 She lived in Peking with her husband who for seven years 1920 1927 held a professorship

at the Peking Union Medical College University of Pennsylvania Bulletin University of Pennsylvania,1927 The Religious Question in Modern China Vincent Goossaert,David A. Palmer,2011-04-15 Recent events from strife in Tibet and the rapid growth of Christianity in China to the spectacular expansion of Chinese Buddhist organizations around the globe vividly demonstrate that one cannot understand the modern Chinese world without attending closely to the question of religion The Religious Question in Modern China highlights parallels and contrasts between historical events political regimes and cultural movements to explore how religion has challenged and responded to secular Chinese modernity from 1898 to the present Vincent Goossaert and David A Palmer piece together the puzzle of religion in China not by looking separately at different religions in different contexts but by writing a unified story of how religion has shaped and in turn been shaped by modern Chinese society From Chinese medicine and the martial arts to communal temple cults and revivalist redemptive societies the authors demonstrate that from the nineteenth century onward as the Chinese state shifted the religious landscape consistently resurfaced in a bewildering variety of old and new forms The Religious Question in Modern China integrates historical anthropological and sociological perspectives in a comprehensive overview of China s religious history that is certain to become an indispensable reference for specialists and students alike From the Mists of Martyrdom Ildikó Gyöngyvér Sárközi ,2018 This book is the result of nearly three years of fieldwork among the Sibe an ethnic minority long caught up in processes of Chinese imperial expansion and nation building Split into two groups since the eighteenth century 5000 kilometres separate Sibe in their Manchurian homeland from their co ethnics in Xinjiang northwest China After 200 years contacts were re established in the 1950s In this study the author focuses on the re construction of ethnic awareness by local and official Sibe historians Analysing how the cornerstone of Sibe history the Great Western Resettlement was turned into a myth she demonstrates that writing their own history allowed the Sibe to reinterpret their shared past and identity Combining analysis of primary sources and text based data with ethnographic observations this monograph offers a window on previously unknown dimensions of Chinese nation building and makes an original contribution to historical anthropology Proceedings of Commencement University of Pennsylvania,1927 China Harley Farnsworth MacNair,2022-09-23 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1946 Family and Kinship in Chinese Society Ai-li S. Chin,Maurice Freedman,Joint Committee on Contemporary China. Subcommittee on Research on Chinese Society,1970 Includes bibliographical references Dry Spells Jeffrey Snyder-Reinke,2020-03-17 Chinese officials put considerable effort into managing the fiscal and legal affairs of their jurisdictions but they also devoted significant time and energy to performing religious rituals on behalf of the state This groundbreaking study explores this underappreciated aspect of Chinese political life by investigating rainmaking activities organized or conducted by local officials in the Qing dynasty Using a wide variety of primary sources this study explains how and why state rainmaking became a prominent feature of the late imperial religious landscape It also vividly describes the esoteric spectacular and occasionally grotesque techniques officials used to pray for rain Charting the ways in which rainmaking performances were contested by local communities this study argues that state rainmaking provided an important venue where the relationship between officials and their constituents was established and maintained For this reason the author concludes that official rainmaking was instrumental in constituting state power at the local level This monograph addresses issues that are central to the study of late imperial Chinese society and culture including the religious activities of Chinese officials the nature of state orthodoxy and the symbolic dimensions of local governance

The Beef Taboo in China Vincent Goossaert, 2025-02-28 Praise for the French edition It will no longer be possible to discuss Chinese civilization without referring to this work the foundation for a new vision of culture and religiosity in China Scholars working on the comparative social role of food culture will also find something to draw on here Archives de sciences sociales des religion This book repays careful reading on many counts including its ambitious scope its wealth of vivifying detail and its judicious analysis It should be required reading for all those interested in traditional Chinese society and culture and their modern transformations as well as those concerned with the history of food taboos in different contexts They will be richly rewarded Journal of Song Yuan Studies The Beef Taboo in China explains how and why around the turn of the second millennium the Chinese determined that cattle should not be slaughtered or eaten This taboo remained prevalent until the beginning of the twentieth century and is still observed by some today Goossaert situates this prohibition within evolving Chinese attitudes toward animals and meat and juxtaposes the taboo with vegetarianism and other forms of meat ethics He argues that the emergence of this specific practice must be understood in several contexts notably a new agricultural economy and ecology in early modern times that protected plow cattle and marginalized pastures a sacrificial reform that eliminated beef as the standard offering to gods and spirits and the development of Daoist rituals cults and moral theology that tabooed beef and made this observance a linchpin of Chinese civilization

Hong Kong Grant Evans, Maria Tam, 1997-07-01 Hong Kong has become a by word for all that is modern and sparkling in Asia today Yet tourist brochures still play with the old cliché of Hong Kong as a place where East meets West Images of so called traditional China junks sailing Victoria Harbour or old women praying to gods in smoky temples mingle with those portraying Hong Kong as a consumer and business paradise This collection of essays attempts to transcend the old polarities It looks at modern Hong Kong in all its splendour and diversity in the run up to its re absorption into Greater China through the mediums of film food architecture rumors and slang It explores the question of a distinct modern Chinese identity in Hong Kong and even when it explores the traditional stamping ground of the older anthropology in the New Territories it finds a dramatically changed context in particular for women This collection presents an intriguing insight into the process of transition from tradition to modernity in this Modern Chinese Metropolis Cantonese Puppet Theater Alan Lloyd Kagan,1978 Daoism Handbook Livia Kohn,2018-12-24 Thirty major scholars in the field wrote this new authoritative guide to the main features and development of Daoism The chapters are devoted to either specific periods or topics such as Women in Daoism Daoism in Korea and Daoist Ritual Music Each chapter rigidly deals with a fixed set of aspects such as history texts worldview and practices Clear markings in the chapters themselves and a detailed index make this volume the most accessible key resource on Daoism past and present The Preindustrial City: Past and Present Sjoberg,1960 From Simon Schuster The Preindustrial City by Gideon Sjoberg examines city life both in the past and present In his work Sjoberg takes readers on a journey through the history of cities from their beginnings and the cities that were independently invented to the different economic political and religious structures common in cities
