Historical Dictionary of the Baha'i Faith Hugh C. Adamson,2006-12-21 Growing out of the teachings of the B b who introduced the idea of the coming of a great prophet the one promised in the scriptures of all the world s major religions the Bah Faith was founded by Bah u ll h when in 1866 he publicly declared that he was the One the B b prophesized The 2nd edition of the Historical Dictionary of the Bah Faith presents a general historical overview of both B b and Bah religions as well as a theological overview of the Bah Faith from their inception in the mid 19th century to the middle of 2005 It presents biographical details of the Founders and Central Figures along with numerous leaders and pioneers most of the basic principles and precepts as well as aspects of its organization and administration Through the use of photographs a list of acronyms a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on nearly every aspect of the religion and appendixes listing the genealogy of the Founders statistical information and lists of apostles disciples Hands of the Cause Knights of Bah u ll h as well as of more than 930 believers who have contributed to its growth and development this book is a fundamental tool for finding information on all things related to the Bah Faith Pakistan Philosophical Congress Pakistan Philosophical Congress,1958 Books in Print ,1983 Church and State Sen McGlinn,2005 This is a political theology for the Baha i Faith but it is also a philosophy for living in our globalized post modern society The author investigates the Baha i teachings concerning the separation of Church and State Government religion commerce art education and science are increasingly independent have different social functions relate differently to one another and have different meanings for us today This functional differentiation also drives the pluralism relativism and global scope of our post modern society In a society such as ours in which religious ritual is the mirror of individual distinctiveness not of collective identity in which permanent pluralism means that no one religion can provide common norms and values and in which the values of one sphere of life are not transferred to other spheres religion must find a new role in society The twentieth century has taught us that economic affairs cannot be governed by political ideologies that science must be free of doctrine that the dignity and autonomy of the individual must be respected and that church and state must be separated This is an exhaustive review of Baha i literature on the subject but the book also inquires into the scriptures of both Christianity and Islam to find that the separations of state from religion is a universal ideal Publisher s website
