Religion, Society and Culture at Dura-Europos Ted Kaizer, 2016-11-17 This volume advances our understanding of the religion society and culture of Dura Europos the small town on the Euphrates known since the 1930s as the Pompeii of the Syrian desert Several features make the site potentially our best source for day to day life in a small town situated on the periphery of the Roman world inscriptions and graffiti in ten ancient languages sculptures and frescoes combining elements of Classical and Oriental art the most important papyrological dossier of any military unit in the Roman world documents relating to the local economy over a dozen pagan sanctuaries plus a famously painted synagogue and the earliest Christian house church all set in a gridiron city plan and surrounded by well preserved fortifications Dura's unique findings facilitate the study of life in a provincial small town to a degree that archaeology and history do not usually allow of Ancient Houses Jennifer A. Baird, 2014 Dura Europos on the Syrian Euphrates is one of the best preserved and most extensively excavated sites of the Roman world A Hellenistic foundation later held by the Parthians and then the Romans Dura had a Roman military garrison installed within its city walls before it was taken by the Sasanians in the mid third century The Inner Lives of Ancient Houses is the first study to consider the houses of the site as a whole The houses were excavated by a team from Yale and the French Academy of Inscriptions and Letters in the 1920s and 30s and though a wealth of archaeological and textual material was recovered most of that relating to housing was never published Through a combination of archival information held at the Yale University Art Gallery and new fieldwork with the Mission Franco Syrienne d Europos Doura this study re evaluates the houses of the site integrating architecture artefacts and textual evidence and examining ancient daily life and cultural interaction as well as considering houses which were modified for use by the Roman military New Perspectives in Seleucid History, Archaeology and Numismatics Roland Oetjen, 2019-12-16 Dedicated to Getzel M Cohen a leading expert in Seleucid history this volume gathers 45 contributions on Seleucid history archaeology numismatics political relations policy toward the Jews Greek cities non Greek populations peripheral and

treatises relating to animals humans and other lifeforms Through an original analysis of creaturely generation and species classification by late ancient Palestinian rabbis and other thinkers in the Roman empire Rafael Rachel Neis shows how rabbis blurred the lines between the human and other beings This they did even as they were intent on classifying creatures and delineating the contours of the human Recognizing that life proliferates via multiple mechanisms beyond sexual copulation between two heterosexual male and female individuals of the same species the rabbis produced intricate alternatives This expansive view of generation included humans Likewise in parsing the variety of creatures the rabbis attended to the overlaps and resemblances across seemingly distinct species upsetting in turn unmitigated claims of human distinctiveness Intervening in conversations in animal studies queer theory trans theory and feminist science studies When a Human Gives Birth to a Raven provincializes sacrosanct ideals of reproduction in favor of a broader range of generation kinship and species offering powerful historical alternatives to the paradigms associated with so called traditional ideas Sacrifice and the Origins of Islam Brannon Wheeler, 2022-06-23 Islam is the only biblical religion that still practices animal sacrifice Indeed every year more than a million animals are shipped to Mecca from all over the world to be slaughtered during the Muslim Hajj This multi disciplinary volume is the first to examine the physical foundations of this practice and the significance of the ritual Brannon Wheeler uses both textual analysis and various types of material evidence to gain insight into the role of animal sacrifice in Islam He provides a thick description of the elaborate camel sacrifice performed by Muhammad which serves as the model for future Hajj sacrifices Wheeler integrates biblical and classical Arabic sources with evidence from zooarchaeology and the rock art of ancient Arabia to gain insight into an event that reportedly occurred 1400 years ago His book encourages a more nuanced and expansive conception of sacrifice in the history of religion Oxford Handbook of Roman Sculpture Elise A Friedland, Melanie Grunow Sobocinski, Elaine Gazda, 2015-01-02 The study of Roman sculpture has been an essential part of the disciplines of Art History and Classics since the eighteenth century Famous works like the Laoco n the Arch of Titus and the colossal portrait of Constantine are familiar to millions Again and again scholars have returned to sculpture to answer questions about Roman art society and history Indeed the field of Roman sculptural studies encompasses not only the full chronological range of the Roman world but also its expansive geography and a variety of artistic media formats sizes and functions Exciting new theories methods and approaches have transformed the specialized literature on the subject in recent decades Rather than creating another chronological catalogue of representative examples from various periods genres and settings The Oxford Handbook of Roman Sculpture synthesizes current best practices for studying this central medium of Roman art situating it within the larger fields of Art History Classical Archaeology and Roman Studies This comprehensive volume fills the gap between introductory textbooks and highly focused professional literature The Oxford Handbook of Roman Sculpture conveniently presents new technical scientific literary and theoretical approaches to the study of Roman sculpture in one reference volume while simultaneously complementing textbooks and other publications that present well known works in the corpus The contributors to this volume address metropolitan and provincial material from the early republican period through late antiquity in an engaging and fresh style Authoritative innovative and up to date The Oxford Handbook of Roman Sculpture will remain an invaluable Over the Mountains and Far Away: Studies in Near Eastern history and archaeology resource for years to come presented to Mirjo Salvini on the occasion of his 80th birthday Pavel S. Avetisyan, Roberto Dan, Yervand H. Grekyan, 2019-04-30 This volume is a tribute to the career of Professor Mirjo Salvini on the occasion his 80th birthday composed of 62 papers written by his colleagues and students The majority of contributions deal with research in the fields of Urartian and Hittite Studies the topics that attracted Prof Salvini most during his long and fruitful career Roman Terracottas Giorgos Papantoniou, Demetrios Michaelides, Maria Dikomitou - Eliadou, 2019-05-15 Edited by G Papantoniou D Michaelides and M Dikomitou Eliadou Hellenistic and Roman Terracottas is a collection of 29 chapters with an introduction presenting diverse and innovative approaches archaeological stylistic iconographic functional contextual digital and physicochemical in the study of ancient terracottas across the Mediterranean and the Near East from the Hellenistic period to Late Antiquity The 34 authors advocate collectively the significance of a holistic approach to the study of coroplastic art which considers terracottas not simply as works of art but most importantly as integral components of ancient material culture The volume will prove to be an invaluable companion to all those interested in ancient terracottas and their associated iconography and technology as well as in ancient artefacts and classical archaeology in general Stephen J. Davis, 2014-05-13 Little is known about the early childhood of Jesus Christ But in the decades after his death stories began circulating about his origins One collection of such tales was the so called Infancy Gospel of Thomas known in antiquity as the Paidika or Childhood Deeds of Jesus In it Jesus not only performs miracles while at play such as turning clay birds into live sparrows but also gets enmeshed in a series of interpersonal conflicts and curses to death children and teachers who rub him the wrong way How would early readers have made sense of this young Jesus In this highly innovative book Stephen Davis draws on current theories about how human communities construe the past to answer this question He explores how ancient readers would have used texts images places and other key reference points from their own social world to understand the Christ child's curious actions He then shows how the figure of a young Jesus was later picked up and exploited in the context of medieval Jewish Christian and Christian Muslim encounters Challenging many scholarly assumptions Davis adds a crucial dimension to the story of how Christian history was created Camels in the Biblical World Martin Heide, Joris Peters, 2021-10-26 Camels are first mentioned in the Bible as the movable property of Abraham During the early monarchy they feature prominently as long distance mounts for the Queen of Sheba and almost a millennium later the Gospels tell us about the impossibility of a camel passing through a needle s eye Given the limited extrabiblical evidence for camels before circa 1000 BCE a thorough investigation of the spatio temporal history of the camel in the ancient Near and Middle East is necessary to understand their early appearance in the Hebrew Bible Camels in the Biblical World is a two part study that charts the cultural trajectories of two domestic species the two humped or Bactrian camel Camelus bactrianus and the one humped or Arabian camel Camelus dromedarius from the fourth through first millennium BCE and up to the first century CE Drawing on archaeological camel remains iconography inscriptions and other text sources the first part reappraises the published data on the species domestication and early exploitation in their respective regions of origin The second part takes a critical look at the various references to camels in the Hebrew Bible and the Gospels providing a detailed philological analysis of each text and referring to archaeological data and zoological observations whenever appropriate A state of the art evaluation of the cultural history of the camel and its role in the biblical world this volume brings the humanities into dialogue with the natural sciences The novel insights here serve scholars in disciplines as diverse as biblical studies zoo archaeology history and philology Archaeology of Iran in the Historical Period Kamal-Aldin Niknami, Ali Hozhabri, 2020-05-22 This collection of twenty eight essays presents an up to date survey of pre Islamic Iran from the earliest dynasty of Illam to the end of Sasanian empire encompassing a rich diversity of peoples and cultures Historically Iran served as a bridge between the earlier Near Eastern cultures and the later classical world of the Mediterranean and had a profound influence on political military economic and cultural aspects of the ancient world Written by international scholars and drawing mainly on the field of practical archaeology which traditionally has shared little in the way of theories and methods the book provides crucial pieces to the puzzle of the national identity of Iranian cultures from a historical perspective Revealing the wealth and splendor of ancient Iranian society its rich archaeological data and sophisticated artistic craftsmanship most of which has never before been presented outside of Iran this beautifully illustrated book presents a range of studies addressing specific aspects of Iranian archaeology to show why the artistic masterpieces of ancient Iranians rank among the finest ever produced Together the authors analyze how archaeology can inform us about our cultural past and what remains to still be discovered in this important region Iconographic Exegesis and Third Isaiah Izaak Jozias Hulster, 2009 Although scholars employ pictorial material in biblical exegesis the question of how images from the Ancient Near East can contribute to a better understanding of the Bible has been left unanswered This is the first monograph to outline a historical method for iconographic exegesis The methodological study includes both responses to important theoretical questions such as What is an image and What is culture and an interdisciplinary exploration of issues of history art history archaeology and cultural anthropology The three stage method proposed is embedded in hermeneutical and exegetical reflections The application of iconographical exeges s to the interpretation of metaphors is also considered In demonstrating the method and its application Izaak I de Hulster focuses on Third Isaiah and develops three iconographical exegetical studies on yad in Isaiah 56 5 light in Isaiah 60 and grape processing in Isaiah 63
