The Baudin Expedition And The Tasmanian Aborigines 1809:

The Baudin Expedition and the Tasmanian Aborigines, 1802 Norman James Brian Plomley, 1983 The French Explorers and the Aboriginal Australians 1772-1839 Colin L. Dyer, 2005 Opens a fascinating window and a fresh perspective on the early European exploration of Australia These French explorers and scientists kept journals many of which until very recently remained obscure and untranslated Their cultural insights are invaluable sometimes shocking and always engaging Transgressions Ingereth Macfarlane, Mark Hannah, 2007-12-01 This volume brings together an innovative set of readings of complex interactions between Australian Aboriginal people and colonisers It has its origins in 2003 when Mark Hannah then a doctoral student in the Centre for Cross Cultural Research at The Australian National University invited a group of early career scholars to meet in Canberra They brought their diverse social science and humanities backgrounds to the uncovering of creative Indigenous responses to the colonial encounter in Australia and fresh ways of writing about these Their studies were focused in diverse parts of Australia and on different time periods but shared a common interest in developing critical re assessments of Australian colonial and anti colonial histories Their meeting encouraged face to face exchanges that could short circuit the isolation often experienced by cross disciplinary original scholars It also emphasised writerly aspects of creative thinking promoting the portrayal of character alternative prose styles and inventive narrative forms The authors responses to these invitations have flavoured the commissioned papers presented here The critical and creative drives which inform them shines out in their writing They are exciting and sometimes surprising in the angles they take and the cross overs of genre or subject that they offer Provided by publisher The A to Z of the Discovery and Exploration of Australia Alan Day, 2009-06-19 This engaging reference examines the history of the search for and the discovery of Australia taking full account of the evidence for and the speculation surrounding possible earlier contacts by the Ancient Egyptians Arabs and Chinese seamen Day brings the expeditions to life expressing the desires that drove great sea captains deeper into turbulent waters searching for caches of spice silks and precious metals Covers a wide variety of topics including Seamen from eight nations The recovery of storm wrecked ships Diplomatic treaties Priority of discovery disputes Military and civil explorers and surveyors Topographical features Geographical terms and places Rivers and river system The Pacific Muse Patty O'Brien, 2006 While examining colonial culture in its many manifestations from art literature and film to the journals of explorers and missionaries O'Brien rereads not only the canonical texts of Pacific imperialism but also lesser known remnants of this cultural heritage with an eye to what they reveal about gender sexuality race and femininity Over its long history from the famous and much romanticized settlement of Tahitian women and mutineers from the Bounty on Pitcairn Island in 1789 to the South Seas romantic tradition Gauguin and beach culture notions of female primitivism changed in response to the ideological watersheds of Christianity Enlightenment science and race theories as well as the development of democratic nation states modernity and colonialism Australian Science in the Making R. W.

Home, Roderick Weir Home, 1990-09-28 In this 1989 volume the Australian Academy of Science celebrates and assesses two centuries of Australian science Science, Voyages, and Encounters in Oceania, 1511-1850 Bronwen Douglas, 2014-03-26

Blending global scope with local depth this book throws new light on important themes Spanning four centuries and vast space it combines the history of ideas with particular histories of encounters between European voyagers and Indigenous people in Oceania Island Southeast Asia New Guinea Australia New Zealand and the Pacific Islands First Tasmanians Shayne Breen, 2025-08-13 The history of the First Tasmanians is a story of ingenuity adaptation and resilience In First Tasmanians historian Shayne Breen traces the 40 000 years of Aboriginal exploration land settlement hunting practices and controlled burning on the island The First Tasmanians were committed to the terms of life set down by creation ancestors their hunting and gathering skills a source of wonder to observant colonists These skilled practitioners of land management universally respected local autonomy and their seasonal journeys enhanced social interaction as they negotiated momentous changes in climate vegetation and topography Social cohesion was fostered through singing dancing and storytelling around the evening campfire and rituals and networks were maintained across life on earth and the afterlife In thirty short years of the nineteenth century this carefully nurtured collective life was destroyed by an imperial power to be replaced by a narrative of Aboriginal resistance struggle and protest Multiple genocidal policies left contemporary First Tasmanians with a complex legacy of historical grief chronic disadvantage and intergenerational trauma a legacy that endures to this day First Tasmanians is the first interdisciplinary account of Tasmanian Aboriginal history told in three movements the deep hunter gatherer past the collective life at the time of the British invasion and the recent past It is a story of courage continuity and an unwavering commitment to revitalising connections between country culture and community The Axe Had Never

Sounded John Mulvaney, 2007-08-01 This book meets well the triple promise of the title the inter connections of place people and heritage John Mulvaney brings to this work a deep knowledge of the history ethnography and archaeology of Tasmania He presents a comprehensive account of the areas history over the 200 years since French naval expeditions first charted its coastlines The important records the French officers and scientists left of encounters with Aboriginal groups are discussed in detail set in the wider ethnographic context and compared with those of later expeditions The topical issues of understanding the importance of Recherche Bay as a cultural landscape and its protection and future management inform the book Readers will be challenged to consider the connections between people and place and how these may constitute significant national heritage Roving Mariners Lynette Russell, 2012-11-01 For most Australian Aboriginal people the impact of colonialism was blunt dispossession dislocation disease murder and missionization Yet there is another story of Australian history that has remained untold a story of enterprise and entrepreneurship of Aboriginal people seizing the opportunity to profit from life at sea as whalers and sealers In some cases participation was voluntary in others it was more invidious and involved kidnapping and trade in women In many cases the individuals maintained and exercised a degree of personal autonomy and agency within their new circumstances This book explores some of their lives and adventures by analyzing archival records of maritime industry captains logs ships records and the journals of the sailors themselves among other artifacts Much of what is known about this period comes from the writings of Herman Melville and in this book Melville s whaling novels act as a prism through which relations aboard ships are understood Drawing on both history and literature Roving Mariners provides a comprehensive history of Australian Aboriginal whaling and sealing
