Women vs Hollywood Helen O'Hara, 2021-02-18 A fascinating polemic Sunday Times A powerful sobering and vital work The Mail on Sunday A page turning read peppered with humour Sight Sound A must read Edgar Wright A call to arms from Empire magazine's geek queen Helen O'Hara that explores women's roles both in front of and behind the camera since the birth of Hollywood how those roles are reflected within wider society and what we can do to level the playing field Hollywood was born just over a century ago at a time of huge forward motion for women's rights With no rules in place to stop them there were women who forged ahead in many areas of filmmaking Yet despite the work of early pioneers like Dorothy Arzner Mabel Normand Mary Pickford and Alice Guy Blach it soon came to embody the same old sexist standards Women found themselves fighting a system that fed on their talent creativity and beauty but refused to pay them the same respect as their male contemporaries until now The tide has finally begun to turn A new generation of women both in front of and behind the camera are making waves in the industry and are now shaping some of the biggest films to hit our screens In Women vs Hollywood The Fall and Rise of Women in Film film critic Helen O'Hara takes a closer look at the pioneering and talented women of Hollywood and their work in film since Hollywood began And in understanding how women were largely written out of Hollywood's own origin story and how the films we watch are put together we can finally see how to put an end to a picture that is so deeply unequal and discover a multitude of stories out there just waiting to be told
