Sir John Vanbrugh:

Sir John Vanbrugh Christian Augustus Barman,1924 Profile of the 18th century British architect Sir John Vanbrugh
Sir John Vanbrugh Frank McCormick,1991 McCormick s study is the first to show the interrelation of Vanbrugh s seemingly disparate careers as architect and dramatist Perhaps because his talent embraced two diverse disciplines Sir John Vanbrugh has received less critical attention that his achievements deserve Vanbrugh wrote or adapted ten comedies The Relapse and The Provoked Wife proving the most successful and designed a host of country houses of which the best known are Blenheim Palace and Castle Howard In fact no one built grander or more controversial country homes than Vanbrugh McCormick challenges the previous critical studies of Vanbrugh that have concentrated on either his architectural or his playwriting career to the exclusion of the other He reveals the role of Vanbrugh s life in his works especially his experience as a hostage in France arguing that Blenheim Palace and The Relapse and many other of his buildings and plays are linked by their creator s preoccupation with the notion of the citadel in danger He examines the sources of Vanbrugh s building style and demonstrates the essential continuity of his dramatic and architectural practice a continuity stemming from his use of a distinctive body of combat and siege imagery in both his dramatic and architectural vocabularies The Complete Works of Sir John Vanbrugh: The preface.
