New Jersey Environmental Law Handbook Albert I. Telsey, 2025-09-04 This thoroughly revised edition of the New Jersey Environmental Law Handbook provides a comprehensive reference work that the reader can rely on for up to date and accurate information on New Jersey's environmental law. Each chapter incorporates both a theoretical and practical approach to ensure that you get the best and most actionable information possible. The author and the contributors are all respected attorneys, consultants, and professionals and all are experts in their fields. They come together in this book to provide the most in depth and up to date guide for New Jersey's environmental regulations and policies, all while maintaining an accessible and engaging writing style. The New Jersey Environmental Law Handbook begins with an overview of the environmental law program in New Jersey and discusses a variety of topics including the Meadowlands, water quality, and supply, contaminated property, finance, and insurance, and litigation. Other chapters include topics such as wildlife protection, air quality regulation, flood hazard control, and redevelopment.

Enforcement of European Union Environmental Law Martin Hedemann-Robinson, 2015-05-15 Offering a detailed account of the various legal arrangements at European Union level, this book is an ideal reference tool for practitioners and legal scholars. As well as examining the principal sources of EU environmental law enforcement, it also contributes to the legal and political debates that surround the subject. Spanning three parts, the author examines the practical impact of the legal arrangements at Union level that are used to uphold EU environmental norms. Offering a comprehensive account of the current state of EU environmental law enforcement and the developments affecting it, Martin Hedemann-Robinson explores the role of the European Commission, the possibilities for private law enforcement, and the responsibilities of member state national authorities. Key legal developments that have occurred since the first edition have been incorporated, including new statutory developments and case law. Particular attention is paid to the impact of the 2007 Lisbon Treaty on foundational EU treaty provisions enabling the European Commission to take legal action against EU member states infringing Union environmental law, the establishment of a new legal architecture at Union level on the topic of environmental criminal policy, as well as increased EU legislative intervention in the area of environmental inspections. The impact of the 1998 Aarhus Convention on EU environmental law enforcement is also addressed in detail, including the influence of recommendations of the Aarhus Convention's Compliance Committee.
