Cox,2013-05-24 The human figure is one of the earliest topics drawn by the young child and remains popular throughout childhood and into adolescence When it first emerges however the human figure in the child's drawing is very bizarre it appears to have no torso and its arms if indeed it has any are attached to its head Even when the figure begins to look more conventional the child must still contend with a variety of problems for instance how to draw the head and body in the right proportions and how to draw the figure in action In this book Maureen Cox traces the development of the human form in children's drawings she reviews the literature in the field criticises a number of major theories which purport to explain the developing child's drawing skills and also presents new data Primary Education ,1927 Enabling Children's Learning Through Drawing Fred Sedgwick,2013-10-23 At the heart of this book is an emphasis on helping children to learn about themselves their world and their relationships through drawing It also shows how teachers can use drawing as an in road into art language literacy and other aspects of the curriculum how children can improve their writing through drawing concentrating on draftsmanship the lines of letters words and sentences and how children can improve the quality of their drawing with four basic rules that have been proven to raise standards throughout school Based on case studies of children from six to eleven years of age this passionately written book draws inspiration from Leonardo da Vinci's sketchbooks and from Nigerian art to show how children can learn more effectively through the medium of drawing Is This a Phase?

Csinos, 2011-01-14 Children know God They encounter God in diverse ways as they walk along the spiritual journey Amidst this diversity four distinct avenues for connecting with God emerge in the lives of children word emotion symbol and action These are the four spiritual styles broad approaches to spirituality and faith through which children experience God and make sense of their lives in the world around them Children's Ministry that Fits blends insightful research relevant theory and practical ministry into a guidebook for discovering and understanding children's spiritual styles Drawing from theology personal experience and the spiritual lives of children David M Csinos offers practical wisdom that will help pastors parents and teachers to move beyond one size fits all approaches to children's ministry and begin nurturing the spiritual lives of children in welcoming and inclusive environments Visual Methods with Children and Young People Dylan Yamada-Rice, Eve Stirling, 2015-10-21 This volume focuses on using visual research methods with children and young people Featuring insights from academic experts and established professionals from visual industries it explores a range of issues from visual ethics to children's interaction with place School and the Magic of Children Greg Bottrill, 2020-02-24 In this book I share with you an alternative to the school of today A way of creating the conditions for you to go on an adventure with children Education should not be a predetermined journey with map already drawn with no ability to leave the path or pause It should be a co adventure This co adventure can only take place when we take the first step into the unknown This can feel daunting and can open us up to questions and uncertainty However once we do take that first step an adventure lies ahead like no other an adventure so magical that it can and will change everything And the reason that this adventure is so special is that it will take you into the very soul of children and of yourself In these pages I offer you an invitation It comes from my head and heart to speak to yours It is not didactic It is a way to create the conditions for the magic of children to thrive Greg The Role of Subject Knowledge in the Early Years of Schooling Carol Aubrey, 1994
