The Guild, 1992 The Denver Artists Guild Stan Cuba, 2015-05-15 In 1928 the newly organized Denver Artists Guild held its inaugural exhibition in downtown Denver Little did the participants realize that their initial effort would survive the Great Depression and World War II and then outlive all of the group's fifty-two charter members The guild's founders worked in many media and pursued a variety of styles In addition to the oils and watercolors one would expect were masterful pastels by Elsie Haddon Haynes photographs by Laura Gilpin sculpture by Gladys Caldwell Fisher and Arnold R. Ronnebeck ceramics by Anne Van Briggles Ritter and Paul St. Gaudens and collages by Pansy Stockton Styles included realism impressionism regionalism surrealism and abstraction Murals by Allen True Vance Kirkland John E. Thompson Louise Ronnebeck and others graced public and private buildings secular and religious in Colorado and throughout the United States The guild's artists didn't just contribute to the fine and decorative arts of Colorado they enhanced the national reputation of the state Then in 1948 the Denver Artists Guild became the stage for a great public debate pitting traditional against modern The twenty-year-old guild split apart as modernists bolted to form their own group the Fifteen Colorado Artists It was a seminal moment some of the guild's artists became great modernists while others remained great traditionalists Enhanced by period photographs and reproductions of the founding members' works The Denver Artists Guild chronicles a vibrant yet overlooked chapter of Colorado's cultural history The book includes a walking tour of guild members' paintings and sculptures viewable in Denver and elsewhere in Colorado by Leah Naess and author Stan Cuba In honor of the book's release the Byers Evans House Gallery will showcase a collection of founding guild members' works starting June 26, 2015 The exhibit also titled The Denver Artists Guild: Its Founding Members contains paintings from artists such as the famed Paschal Quackenbush Louise Ronnebeck Albert Byron Olson Elisabeth Spalding Waldo Love and Vance Kirkland The show will be on display through September 26, 2015 School Arts Magazine, 1911 The Printing Art, 1922 Reference Services in the Humanities Judy Reynolds, 1994-11-11 This helpful book provides practical insight into the work and environment of reference services in the humanities Librarian's mental maps of humanities reference materials must include an awareness of the metaphoric not too precise nature of many patrons' queries Reference Services in the Humanities discusses the structure of literature in the humanities and how it matches or challenges mental images of the field Chapters visual whether we visit art galleries cinemas or read comics This book concerns that visual experience Why do we have the visual experiences we have Why do the buildings cars products and advertisements we see look the way they do How are we to explain the existence of different styles of paintings different types of cars and different genres of film How are we to explain the existence of different visual cultures This book begins to answer these questions by explaining visual experience in terms of visual culture The strengths and weaknesses of traditional means of analysing and explaining visual culture are examined and assessed Using a wide range of historical and contemporary examples it is argued that the groups which artists and designers form the audiences and markets which they sell to and the different social classes which are produced and reproduced by art and design are all part of the successful explanation and critical evaluation of visual culture
