important network of commerce throughout the Baltic and North Sea area From Russia in the east to England and France in the west the cities of the Hanseatic League created a vast northern maritime trade network The aim of this volume is to present a state of the field English language volume by some of the most respected Hanse scholars Contributors are Mike Burkhardt Ulf Christian Ewert Rolf Hammel Kiesow Donald J Harreld Carsten Jahnke Michael North J rgen Sarnowsky and Stephan Selzer     England and the German Hanse, 1157-1611 T. social and institutional organization that saw the Low Countries become the most urbanized and densely populated part of Europe by the end of the Middle Ages By delving into the early and high medieval history of society van Bavel uncovers the foundations of the flourishing of the medieval Flemish towns and the forces that propelled Holland towards its Golden Age Exploring the Low Countries at a regional level van Bavel highlights the importance of localized structures for determining the nature of social transitions and economic growth He assesses the role of manorial organization the emergence of markets the rise of towns the quest for self determination by ordinary people and the sharp regional differences in development that can be observed in the very long run In doing so the book offers a significant contribution to the debate about the causes of economic and social change both past and present
