Mosterman, 2021-10-15 In Spaces of Enslavement Andrea C Mosterman addresses the persistent myth that the colonial Dutch system of slavery was more humane Investigating practices of enslavement in New Netherland and then in New York Mosterman shows that these ways of racialized spatial control held much in common with the southern plantation societies In the 1620s Dutch colonial settlers brought slavery to the banks of the Hudson River and founded communities from New Amsterdam in the south to Beverwijck near the terminus of the navigable river When Dutch power in North America collapsed and the colony came under English control in 1664 Dutch descendants continued to rely on enslaved labor Until 1827 when slavery was abolished in New York State slavery expanded in the region with all free New Yorkers benefitting from that servitude Mosterman describes how the movements of enslaved persons were controlled in homes and in public spaces such as workshops courts and churches She addresses how enslaved people responded to regimes of control by escaping from or modifying these spaces so as to expand their activities within them Through a close analysis of homes churches and public spaces Mosterman shows that over the course of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries the region s Dutch communities were engaged in a daily struggle with Black New Yorkers who found ways to claim freedom and resist oppression Spaces of Enslavement writes a critical and overdue chapter on the place of slavery and resistance in the colony and young state of New York Journeys of a Lifetime, Second Edition National Geographic,2018-10-23 Featuring 120 new destinations this best selling inspirational travel guide reveals 500 celebrated and lesser known destinations around the globe from ocean cruises in Antarctica to horse treks in the Andes Completely revised and updated for its 10th anniversary Compiled from the favorite trips of National Geographic s legendary travel writers this fully updated 10th anniversary edition of Journeys of a Lifetime spans the globe to highlight the best of the world s most celebrated and lesser known sojourns Offering a diverse array of possibilities every continent and possible form of transport is covered illustrated with glorious color photographs With 16 new pages new destinations like Cartagena Colombia and updated information throughout this timely new edition is the perfect resource for travelers who crave adventurous trips from trekking the heights of Mt Kilimanjaro in Tanzania to mountain biking in Transylvania and those searching for more specific experiences the world s top small cruises hot new museums around the world secrets for following in the footsteps of film and TV heroes and more Each chapter features stunning photography full color maps and practical tips including how to get there when to visit and how to make the most of your journey Informative and inspiring this luxurious volume is a lifelong resource that readers will treasure for years to come The Second Book of History, Including the Modern History of Europe, Africa, and Asia ...
