The Laity Today And Tomorrow:

The Laity as Participants in the Mission of the Church Humphrey C. Anameje, 2017-06-05 The church is made up of both the clergy and the laity And for it to properly fulfill the mission for which it was instituted by Christ all its members each according to his or her God given gift must contribute both to the upbuilding of the church and to its mission On the part of the laity their active participation in the general mission of the church ad intra and ad extra has been a great challenge in the life and practice of the church throughout its history The Second Vatican Council in its spirit of aggiornamento makes some positive difference This work critically examines the conciliar documents some relevant postconciliar documents and theological reflection of some theologians And finally it proffers solutions that will enhance the active participation of the laity in the mission of the church in general and the church in Southeast Nigeria in particular Laity, Today and Tomorrow, 1986

Tomorrow's Church Today Michael Kelly, 2016-09-20 In his last interview the late Italian Cardinal and former Archbishop of Milan Carlo Maria Martini said the need for deep reform in the Catholic Church was urgent and long overdue because the Church is 200 years behind the times The reference to 200 years clearly points to the watershed in European life that the French Revolution and the Enlightenment became Vatican II was one attempt to meet the challenge of relevance to our times But its best efforts have been on ice since the late 1970s Now a new opportunity arrives in the pontificate of Jorge Mario Bergoglio And the movement he has initiated is evangelical in source and comprehensive in reach But as many observers have pointed out it will not be lasting if it does not lead to sustainable structural change to reform that accompanies renewal In Tomorrow's Church Today five highly qualified commentators focus on what lies ahead for the Church to be reformed if it is to meet the challenges of the 21st Century o A theologian and historian Massimo Faggioli who targets how ministry and leadership can be reshaped authentically for our times o A journalist and radio host for the Australian Broadcasting Corporation the ABC Geraldine Dougue writes a candid piece on how she would advise Pope Francis on the state of the Church o A reporter and analyst with 30 years experience of moves and machinations in the Eternal City Robert Mickens o A bishop with a lifetime of experience of ministering to the divorced and remarried and the benefit of legal and biblical scholarship to support his approach Geoffrey Robinson o A biblical scholar who examines much of what's taken for granted in the governance of the Church and exposes where it is left wanting Antony Campbell and o A bishop whose forced resignation exposes the deficiencies of a system of governance devoid of basics due process and respect for natural rights But the Catholic Church is not its clerics scholars and commentators It is the baptised Geraldine Doogue is a celebrated Australian broadcaster and commentator whose Introduction speaks for and from the experience of the mass of Catholics recognized as one of the most brilliant and accessible histories of early Christian spirituality published in our time In 1945 an Egyptian peasant unearthed what proved to be the Gnostic Gospels thirteen papyrus volumes that expounded a radically different view of the life and teachings of Jesus Christ from that of the New Testament In this spellbinding book renowned religious scholar Elaine Pagels elucidates the mysteries and meanings of these sacred texts both in the world of the first Christians and in the context of Christianity today With insight and passion Pagels explores a remarkable range of recently discovered gospels including the Gospel of Thomas and the Gospel of Mary Magdalene to show how a variety of Christianities emerged at a time of extraordinary spiritual upheaval Some Christians questioned the need for clergy and church doctrine and taught that the divine could be discovered through spiritual search Many others like Buddhists and Hindus sought enlightenment and access to God within Such explorations raised questions Was the resurrection to be understood symbolically and not literally Was God to be envisioned only in masculine form or feminine as well Was martyrdom a necessary or worthy expression of faith These early Christians dared to ask questions that orthodox Christians later suppressed and their explorations led to profoundly different visions of Jesus and his message Brilliant provocative and stunning in its implications The Gnostic Gospels is a radical eloquent reconsideration of the origins of the Christian faith
