The Land Of The Bey:

They Burn the Thistles Yashar Kemal, 2006-11-21 Turkey's greatest novelist Yashar Kemal is an unsurpassed storyteller who brings to life a world of staggering violence and hallucinatory beauty. Kemal's books delve deeply into the entrenched social and historical conflicts that scar the Middle East. At the same time, scents and sounds, vistas of mountain and stream and field rise up from the pages of his books with primitive force. Memed introduced in Kemal's legendary first novel Memed My Hawk and a recurrent character in many of his books is one of the few truly mythic figures of modern fiction: a desperado and sometime defender of the oppressed who is condemned to wander in the blood-soaked gray zone between justice and the law. In They Burn the Thistles, one of the finest of Kemal's novels, Memed is on the run, hunted by his enemies, wounded at wit's end; he has lost faith in himself and has retreated to ponder the vanity of human wishes. Only a chance encounter with an extraordinarily beautiful and powerful stallion, itself a hunted creature, serves to restore his determination and rouse him to action.

The Vanished Imam Fouad Ajami, 2012-04-01 In the summer of 1978, Musa al Sadr, the spiritual leader of the Muslim Shia sect in Lebanon, disappeared mysteriously while on a visit to Libya. As in the Shia myth of the Hidden Imam, this modern-day Imam left his followers upholding his legacy and awaiting his return. Considered an outsider when he had arrived in Lebanon in 1959 from his native Iran, he gradually assumed the role of charismatic mullah and was instrumental in transforming the Shia, a quiescent and downtrodden Islamic minority, into committed political activists. What sort of person was Musa al Sadr? What beliefs in the Shia doctrine did his life embody? Where did he fit into the tangle of Lebanon's warring factions? What was behind his disappearance? In this fascinating and compelling narrative, Fouad Ajami resurrects the Shia's neglected history, both distant and recent, and interweaves the life and work of Musa al Sadr with the larger strands of the Shia past.

Oil and Modern World Dramas Alireza Fakhri-Konandeh, 2023-03-31 The first to focus on the representations of oil in dramatic literature, theatre, and performance, Oil and Modern World Dramas is a pioneering volume in the emerging field of Oil Literatures and Cultures and the more established field of World Literatures. Through close analysis, Fakhri-Konandeh demonstrates how these dramatic works depict oil both in its perceived nature and character as an overdetermined matter, sign, object, a symbol of freedom, autonomy, speed, wealth, modernity, enlightenment, a commodity, a social, cultural agent, a social relation, and a hyper-object. This book is also distinguished by its innovative and critically manifold conceptual framework, positing the petro-literatures and petro-cultures as an inextricable part of a global network. Oil and Modern World Dramas not only demonstrates how the chosen works of petro-drama manifest these concepts in their social, political, vision, aesthetics, and historical/ontological dynamics but also reveals how they deploy such assemblage-based approaches both as a cartographical means and aesthetic method for exposing the systemic Capitalocene nature of petro-capitalist exploitation and as means of proposing ways of resistance and producing alternative modes of subjectivity, community, relationality, and economy.

Africa and the Africans in the Nineteenth Century: A Turbulent History

Catherine Coquery-Vidrovitch, Mary Baker, 2015-02-12 Most histories seek to understand modern Africa as a troubled outcome of nineteenth century European colonialism but that is only a small part of the story In this celebrated book beautifully translated from the French edition the history of Africa in the nineteenth century unfolds from the perspective of Africans themselves rather than the European powers It was above all a time of tremendous internal change on the African continent Great jihads of Muslim conquest and conversion swept over West Africa In the interior warlords competed to control the internal slave trade In the east the sultanate of Zanzibar extended its reach via coastal and interior trade routes In the north Egypt began to modernize while Algeria was colonized In the south a series of forced migrations accelerated spurred by the progression of white settlement Through much of the century African societies assimilated and adapted to the changes generated by these diverse forces In the end the West's technological advantage prevailed and most of Africa fell under European control and lost its independence Yet only by taking into account the rich complexity of this tumultuous past can we fully understand modern Africa from the colonial period to independence and the difficulties of today Palestine Commission on the Disturbances of August, 1929 Great Britain.
