The Last Forty Eight Hours Soldier Of Fortune No 11:

Cosmopolis Danilo Zolo, 2013-05-31 This volume makes a challenging critique of the idea of Cosmopolis that is the idea of world or global government In recent years this idea has been put forward as a way of averting the threat of war and international disorder and as a way of avoiding the destruction of the planet Proponents of this idea call for a radical reform of the United Nations which aims to legitimize this institution as an international police force and as a provider of global justice Zolo criticizes this new cosmopolitan philosophy and rejects the idea of trying to eliminate international conflict through the use of centralized and superior military force He seeks instead to develop a conception of international relations which takes account of their pluralistic dynamic and conflictual nature This conception moves away from the logic of hierarchical centralization which so dominates the UN Charter and towards the logic of weak interventionism and weak pacifism which relies on self organization co ordination and negotiation Timely provocative and iconoclastic Cosmopolis is an important contribution to current debates in politics international relations and social and political theory The Agitators

Dorothy Wickenden, 2022-02-22 Harriet Tubman strategically brilliant and uncannily prescient rescued some seventy enslaved people from Maryland s Eastern Shore and shepherded them north along the underground railroad In Auburn New York she entrusted passengers to Martha Coffin Wright a Quaker abolitionist and leader of the women s rights movement and Frances A Seward whose husband served as New York s governor and senator and then as secretary of state under Abraham Lincoln The Agitators opens in the 1820s when Tubman is enslaved in Maryland and Wright and Seward are young homemakers in upstate New York bound by law and tradition and it ends after the Civil War Many of the most prominent figures of the era William H Seward Lincoln Frederick Douglass Elizabeth Cady Stanton Charles Sumner John Brown William Lloyd Garrison are seen through the discerning eyes of the protagonists So are the most explosive political debates about the civil rights of African Americans and women about the enlistment of Black troops and about opposing interpretations of the Constitution Wickenden traces the second American revolution these women fought to bring about and its lasting effects on the country Profoundly relevant to our own time The Agitators brings a vibrant original voice to this transformative period in our history Book jacket
