moments when free will intercepts fate and the rigid divide between social classes is rendered insignificant Each narrative showcases wala and walis of the working class the common yet essential purveyors of goods and providers of service as empowered individuals who take centre stage The shavewala a humble barber becomes an intimate collaborator in a love story that spans the seven seas the malishwali a long serving masseuse conceals her mistress's shocking secret while offering a gift of revelation to another the kismetwali a clairvoyant of unremarkable pedigree solicits cosmic benefaction for her affluent clients These socially eclipsed characters are the true protagonists in every story About Reetika Khanna Nijhawan Reetika Khanna Nijhawan was born and raised in a small town in northern India While growing up she travelled the world extensively with her father an officer in the merchant navy After receiving her degree in Psychology from Delhi University she worked as a flight attendant with Lufthansa German Airlines before settling down to write for ELLE and ELLE Decor in Mumbai She later moved to Atlanta where her work has been published in the Atlanta Journal Constitution and Khabar magazine Kismetwali and Other Stories is her first work of fiction She penned these eight novellas over time while waiting in the carpool line outside her daughter's school The Intoxicated Ghost and Other Stories Arlo Bates, 2020-08-01

Reproduction of the original The Intoxicated Ghost and Other Stories by Arlo Bates Ruth's Fables and Other Stories Ruth E. Todd, 2002-07-31 This book is a collection of true stories about real people family and friends and the influence they had on my life It is all about the journey that each of us makes through life and how we arrive at our destination Salvage Rites: And Other Stories Ian Watson, 2011-09-29 Ian Watson's latest collection shows the same range and apparently inexhaustible fund of ideas that have characterized all his previous books No other contemporary figure in SF is so prolific or inventive a writer of short stories In the title story we immediately encounter a phantasmagoric vision of a society increasingly dependent on recycling its usable material other brilliant inventions include a planet inhabited by lemur like aliens who bafflingly produce marvellously finished stone carvings without apparently having the tools to do so The Moon and Michelangelo people fighting their way through the various levels of what appears to be a real life version of a computer adventure game Jewels in an Angel's Wing and a zoo in which are caged the extensions into our universe of four dimensional hyperbeings Hyperzoo And that is only the beginning there are fifteen stories in all each one a state of the art example of short science fiction at its finest The Evil B.B. Chow and Other Stories Steve Almond, 2006-04-28 Steve Almond the man whose candy jones fueled the bestseller Candyfreak returns with a collection of stories that both seals his reputation as a master of the modern form and risks getting him arrested The cast of characters in The Evil B B Chow and Other Stories includes a wealthy family certain they have been abducted by space aliens a sexy magazine editor who falls for a worldclass cad and a beleaguered dentist who refuses to read his best friend's novel Michael Jackson and Abraham Lincoln make cameos as do a variety of desperate and beautiful loonies all of whom are laid bare often literally In these twelve stories Almond refuses to let his characters off the hook or to abandon them until we have seen the full measure of ourselves within their struggle Director Of The World And Other Stories Jane McCafferty, 1992-09-15 The characters in Jane McCafferty's Director of the World and Other Stories are often distanced, lonely, or displaced from others and the events around them, yet they are almost always ready to act to become involved with others and to change. In Eyes of Others, a woman stopping with her family at a Howard Johnson's during a trip becomes fascinated by the meeting of two strangers and attempts to connect with them, as she has been unable to connect with her own family. Implicit in these stories is a rootlessness that gives way to yearning and a passion for remembering. In the title story, a disturbed child whose father has recently abandoned the family attempts, in language reflecting her shattered sense of the world, to recapture some of their last experiences together. These characters and others in the collection attempt to make sense of their broken lives and shattered thoughts. As John Wideman writes of the stories, there is a sense of commitment to the struggle of making silent worlds speak, of forcing what is threatening or evil or destructive into some form we can see and conjure with.
