Notes From the Last Testament Michael Deibert, 2005-10-04 Notes from the Last Testament by veteran reporter Michael Deibert is a riveting narrative account of the events leading up to and including the overthrow of Haitian President Jean Bertrand Aristide A fearless correspondent and a meticulous researcher Deibert traces the rupturing of the social democratic coalition that originally brought Aristide to power and that had been the fruit of years of opposition to the dictatorships and military juntas From chaotic scenes of frenzied mayhem on the streets of the bidonvilles of Port au Prince with their armed gangs and burning intersections to heated debates in the halls of power these dramatic events throw into stark relief the obstacles facing the world's nascent democracies the trend of first world military intervention in third world affairs and the dual legacies of slavery and colonialism In a remarkable and deeply humane synthesis of on the ground perspectives and exhaustive research Deibert sets vivid personal testimonies alongside an analysis of the country's rich history that reaches back to Haiti's first days as a colony to the time of the rebellion led by the former slave Toussaint Louverture and extends to the present ultimately exploring how Aristide once a beacon of populism and democratic aspirations came to embody brutality and misrule in the tradition of his predecessors Along the way Deibert introduces us to the real heroes of the Haitian people's struggle for a just and independent society free from violence and corruption

The Son of Man as the Last Adam Yongbom Lee, 2012-07-01 Most New Testament scholars today agree that Jesus used an enigmatic self designation bar nasha the Son of Man translated into Greek as ho huios tou anthropou in the Synoptic Gospels In contrast Paul the earliest New Testament writer nowhere mentions the phrase in his letters Does this indicate that the Gospel writers simply misunderstood the generic sense of the Aramaic idiom and used it as a christological title in connection with Daniel 7 as some scholars claim Paul demonstrates explicit and sophisticated Adam Christology in Romans 5 and 1 Corinthians 15 In contrast there is no real equivalent in the Synoptic Gospels Does this indicate that Adam Christology in Romans 5 and 1 Corinthians 15 was essentially a Pauline invention to which the Evangelists were oblivious In this study Yongbom Lee argues that in addition to the Old Testament contemporary Jewish exegetical traditions and his Damascus Christophany Paul uses the early church tradition in particular its implicit primitive Adam Jesus typology and the Son of Man saying traditions reflected in the Synoptic Gospels as a source of his Adam Christology
