The Lady Architects Howe Manning And Almy:

The Lady Architects Doris Cole, Karen Cord Taylor, 1990 The First American Women Architects Sarah Allaback, 2008
An invaluable reference covering the history of women architects Separatism and Subculture Paula M. Kane, 2017-10-10 Kane explores the role of religious identity in Boston in the years 1900-1920 arguing that Catholicism was a central integrating force among different class and ethnic groups She traces the effect of changing class status on religious identity and solidarity and she delineates the social and cultural meaning of Catholicism in a city where Yankee Protestant nativism persisted even as its hegemony was in decline Howe, Manning and Almy, Architects, 1895-1937 Doris Cole, 1982* Women Architects at Work Mary Anne Hunting, Kevin D. Murphy, 2025-02-18 A comprehensive history of the women architects who left their enduring mark on American Modernism In the decades preceding World War II professional architecture schools enrolled increasing numbers of women but career success did not come easily Women Architects at Work tells the stories of the resilient and resourceful women who surmounted barriers of sexism racism and classism to take on crucial roles in the establishment and growth of Modernism across the United States Mary Anne Hunting and Kevin D. Murphy describe how the Cambridge School of Architecture and Landscape Architecture in Massachusetts evolved for the professional education of women between 1916 and 1942 While alumnae such as Eleanor Agnes Raymond Victorine du Pont Homsey and Sarah Pillsbury Harkness achieved some notoriety others like Elizabeth Ann Campbell Knapp and Louisa Vaughan Conrad have been largely absent from histories of Modernism Hunting and Murphy describe how these innovative practitioners capitalized on social educational and professional ties to achieve success and used architecture to address social concerns including how modernist ideas could engage with community and the environment Some joined women led architectural firms while others partnered with men or contributed to Modernism as retailers of household furnishings writers and educators photographers and designers or fine artists With stunning illustrations Women Architects at Work offers new histories of recognized figures while recovering the stories of previously unsung women all of whom contributed to the modernization of American architecture and design The Women Who Changed Architecture Jan Cigliano Hartman, 2022-03-29 A visual and global chronicle of the triumphs challenges and impact of over 100 women in architecture from early practitioners to contemporary leaders Marion Mahony Griffin passed the architectural licensure exam in 1898 and created exquisite drawings that buoyed the reputation of Frank Lloyd Wright Her story is one of the many told in The Women Who Changed Architecture which sets the record straight on the transformative impact women have made on architecture With in depth profiles and stunning images this is the most comprehensive look at women in architecture around the world from the nineteenth century to today Discover contemporary leaders like MacArthur Fellow Jeanne Gang spearheading sustainable design initiatives reimagining cities as equitable spaces and directing architecture schools An essential read for architecture students architects and anyone interested in how buildings are created and the history behind them Arts and Crafts Architecture Maureen Meister, 2014-11-04 This book offers the first full scale examination of the architecture associated with the Arts and Crafts movement that spread throughout New England at the turn of the twentieth century Although interest in the Arts and Crafts movement has grown since the 1970s the literature on New England has focused on craft production Meister traces the history of the movement from its origins in mid nineteenth century England to its arrival in the United States and describes how Boston architects including H H Richardson embraced its tenets in the 1870s and 1880s She then turns to the next generation of designers examining buildings by twelve of the region s most prominent architects eleven men and a woman who assumed leadership roles in the Society of Arts and Crafts founded in Boston in 1897 Among them are Ralph Adams Cram Lois Lilley Howe Charles Maginnis and H Langford Warren They promoted designs based on historical precedent and the region s heritage while encouraging well executed ornament Meister also discusses revered cultural personalities who influenced the architects notably Ralph Waldo Emerson and art historian Charles Eliot Norton as well as contemporaries who shared their concerns such as Louis Brandeis Conservative though the architects were in the styles they favored they also were forward looking blending Arts and Crafts values with Progressive Era idealism Open to new materials and building types they made lasting contributions with many of their designs now landmarks honored in cities and towns across New England

The City as Target Ryan Bishop, Gregory Clancey, John W. Phillips, 2012-03-29 Bringing together scholars from a diverse range of disciplines The City as Target provides a sustained and critical response to the relationship between the concept of targeting in its many forms and notions of understanding imagining and shaping the urban Among the many spatial and graphic terms used to describe cities in urban studies the word target is rarely encountered Though equally spatial it differs from these others by implying some motive force and more than that a force with some intentionality To target is to aim to project and ultimately to impact It suggests a space of violence or at least action or movement resulting in displacement which most other terms do not In that sense it is useful underused and perhaps revelatory Rather than approach the city as simply a site of growth processes and developments the contributors to this volume treat it as the recipient of attentions The work draws on a wide variety of geographical sites and historic monuments in order to explore this concept examining and challenging current urban theories It seeks to highlight both the power of The Global City and the current vulnerability and fragility of urban culture exploring the city as a recipient and a culprit in relation to issues including terrorism and urban warfare the latest cyclical failure of global financial markets and the relatively new spectre of environmental unsustainability Offering a unique and relevant contribution to the literature this work will be of great interest to scholars of urban theory international relations postcolonial politics and military studies

Long Island Landscapes and the Women Who Designed Them Cynthia Zaitzevsky, 2009-02-24 An account of eminent women landscape architects who flourished in the golden age of country estates This beautiful book covers in depth the work of six designers Beatrix Farrand Martha Hutcheson Marian Coffin Ellen Shipman Ruth Dean and Annette Hoyt Flanders and looks at a dozen other less well known women It focuses on the Long Island projects that constituted a large part of their work and brings these pioneering women to life as people and as professionals Hidden History of Cambridge & Harvard Jane Merrill, 2023 Hasty Pudding meetings were enlivened with mock trials spoofing happenings in Cambridge and among the faculty by 1860 the trials had evolved into shows In a corner of the Cambridge Common across from Harvard Yard a Gilded Age statue of a Puritan has been toppled several times Letters home from Robert Kennedy were found stashed on a high shelf in a college room he occupied over 30 years after he graduated
