Denzin, 2008 The Landscape of Qualitative Research Third Edition attempts to put the field of qualitative research in context Part I provides background on the field starting with history then action research and the academy and the politics and ethics of qualitative research Part II isolates what we regard as the major historical and contemporary paradigms now structuring and influencing qualitative research in the human disciplines The chapters move from competing paradigms positivist postpositivist constructivist critical theory to specific interpretive perspectives feminisms racialized discourses cultural studies sexualities and queer theory Part III considers the future of qualitative research This text is designed for graduate students taking classes in social research methods and qualitative methods as well as researchers throughout the social sciences and in some fields within the humanities Aspiring to the Landscape Petra Halkes, 2006-01-01 The idea of nature as a cultural construction has been discussed extensively in postmodern theory Less attention however has been paid to the underlying motivations shaping the ideologies of nature in particular the desire to submit to some larger order outside of oneself Aspiring to the Landscape examines this persistent desire and how it is made manifest in contemporary landscape art Four installations of large scale paintings by Canadian artists Eleanor Bond Susan Feindel Stephen Hutchings and Wanda Koop are the focus of Petra Halkes's study The works vary widely in style and iconography but are drawn together by the way they invite a reflection on the troubled relationship between culture and nature and our contradictory and simultaneous longing to conquer and to succumb to nature It is the tension between modern and postmodern interpretations of the subject of nature that makes the theory and the artwork discussed in Aspiring to the Landscape so important to contemporary Canadian culture The Place of Landscape Jeff Malpas, 2011 Interdisciplinary perspectives on landscape from the philosophical to the geographical with an emphasis on the overarching concept of place This volume explores the conceptual topography of landscape It examines the character of landscape as itself a mode of place as well as the modes of place that appear in relation to landscape Leading scholars from a range of disciplines explore the concept of landscape including its supposed relation to the spectatorial its character as time space its relation to indigenous notions of country and its liminality They examine landscape as it appears within a variety of contexts from geography through photography and garden history to theology and more specific studies

look at the forms of landscape in medieval landscape painting film and television and in relation to national identity The essays demonstrate that the study of landscape cannot be restricted to any one genre cannot be taken as the exclusive province of any one discipline and cannot be exhausted by any single form of analysis What the place of landscape now evokes is itself a wide ranging terrain encompassing issues concerning the nature of place of human being in place and of the structures that shape such being and are shaped by it

Merleau-Ponty at the Gallery Véronique M. Fóti, 2020-03-01 A study of the significance of the visual arts in Merleau Ponty s aesthetics in relation to the work of five artists not known or discussed by him Merleau Ponty s phenomenological ontology engages deeply with visual art and this aspect of his work remains significant not only to philosophers but also to artists art theorists and critics Until recently scholarly attention has been focused on the artists he himself was inspired by and wrote about chiefly C zanne Klee Matisse and Rodin Merleau Ponty at the Gallery expands and shifts the focus to address a range of artists Giorgio Morandi Kiki Smith Cy Twombly Joan Mitchell and Ellsworth Kelly whose work came to prominence in the second half of the twentieth century and thus primarily after the philosopher s death V éronique M F ti does not confine her analyses to Merleau Ponty s texts which now importantly include his late lecture courses but also engages directly with the art Of particular concern to her is the art s ethical bearing especially as related to animal and vegetal life The book s concluding chapter addresses the still widespread rejection of beauty as an aesthetic value The book operates along several lines at once offering insightful and new critical readings of artists through the lens of Merleau Ponty s scholarship Clearly written and engaging it will be of interest to a wide range of scholars and students Rajiv Kaushik Brock University
