Unlikely Entrepreneurs Barbra Mann Wall,2005 In Unlikely Entrepreneurs Barbra Mann Wall looks at the development of religious hospitals in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and the entrepreneurial influence Catholic sisters held in this process When immigrant nuns came to the United States in the late nineteenth century they encountered a market economy that structured the way they developed their hospitals Sisters enthusiastically engaged in the market as entrepreneurs but they used a set of tools and understanding that were counter to the market Their entrepreneurship was not to expand earnings but rather to advance Catholic spirituality

Wall places the development of Catholic hospital systems located in Illinois Indiana Minnesota Texas and Utah owned and operated by Catholic sisters within the larger social economic and medical history of the time In the modern health care climate with the influences of corporations federal laws spiraling costs managed care and medical practices that rely less on human judgments and more on technological innovations the modern hospital reflects a dim memory of the past This book will inform future debates on who will provide health care as the sisters depart how costs will be met who will receive care and who will be denied access to health services Images Of Devotion Kate Alexander, 2020-09-22 Dixie has a problem Her boyfriend just broke up with her only two weeks before the big family gathering to celebrate her grandparent s anniversary Even sadder still she isn t all that distraught about losing this relationship Now a trip she was looking forward to is tying her up in knots While she loves her family she is not looking forward to all the questions and pitying looks when she shows up single again Chase has been Dixie s friend since they were children She was his sister s best friend and was considered a part of their family After a tragedy took the life of his sister and mother he devoted himself to being Dixie s friend as they both healed from their loss For years he watched men come and go from Dixie s life and promised himself that she deserved the best even if that meant it was someone other than him He was doing well until she started dating Jay Jay was cute and would provide a nice life for Dixie but now they have broken up Chase is determined not to lose her to another man He finds an opportunity to fill in as Dixie s boyfriend in front of her family and he just has to convince her this is for real Can they overcome their past and find true devotion with each other Miss Sellon and the "Sisters of Mercy" James Spurrell, 1852 Spurrell exposes the Jesuit style and other alarming practices of Miss Sellon the Mother Superior of the Sisters of Mercy
