Skeleton Demon and his Skeletons Robotics Army were trying to conquer Gothdoris's four territories and because of that a fierce and extensive constant battles sparked between Gothdoris GAT and Xakarov GBD and their armies that extend all over the world About the Author Ali Jawad born and raised in Iraq gained a Bachelor's Degree in Dentistry from the University of Baghdad in Iraq at a young age He was granted his special immigrant visa to travel to America for supporting the United States Army as a local translator in Iraq Ali Jawad moved down to Florida and worked three different jobs at the same time with plans to work on his dental degree Later on he joined the United States Army and served for a period of years with multiple combat tours and got out honorably The life path was not that easy for him in the USA He worked hard and continued to do so to establish a good living condition for his family from the ground however his limitless dream ambition dedication and love to help people had him to continue to seek a Bachelor's Degree in Interdisciplinary Studies at Keiser University to further his medical and dental career His passion about writing fictional stories started in early childhood however it grew when he joined the USA army He has so far written 35 fictional books that are part of this second book and the number continues to grow hoping one day all these books will be published so the readers will enjoy it

Opium and the Romantic Imagination Alethea Hayter, 2015-07-30 Does the habit of taking drugs make authors write better or worse or differently Does it alter the quality of their consciousness shape their imagery influence their technique For the Romantic writers of the nineteenth century many of whom experimented with opium and some of whom were addicted to it this was an important question but it has never been fully answered In this study Alethea Hayter examines the work of five writers Crabbe Coleridge De Quincey Wilkie Collins and Francis Thompson who were opium addicts for many years and of several other writers notably Keats Edgar Allan Poe and Baudelaire but also Walter Scott Dickens Mrs Browning James Thomson and others who are known to have taken opium at times The work of these writers is discussed in the context of nineteenth century opinion about the uses and dangers of opium and of Romantic ideas on the creative imagination on dreams and hypnagogic visions and on imagery so that the idiosyncrasies of opium influenced writing can be isolated from their general literary background The examination reveals a strange and miserable region of the mind in which some of the greatest poetic imaginations of the nineteenth century were imprisoned

Unlocking Dreams and Their Secrets Hseham Amrahs, 2024-01-01 Unlocking Dreams and Their Secrets is grounded in practical wisdom It offers techniques for dream recall guidance on keeping dream journals and approaches to cultivating lucidity in dreams The aim is to empower readers not only to interpret their dreams but also to actively engage with the dream world fostering a deeper connection with the subconscious mind The language of dreams is universal transcending cultural geographic and temporal boundaries Yet within this universality every dream is a uniquely personal narrative The book recognizes the dual nature of dreams as both collective and individual experiences weaving together threads of common symbols while honoring the singular significance each dream holds for the dreamer Throughout history dreams have been regarded as messengers guiding individuals through life's complexities and offering glimpses into the future Unlocking Dreams and Their Secrets explores the concept of dreams as guides encouraging readers to pay attention to the wisdom embedded in their nocturnal visions It is an invitation to heed the counsel of dreams and tap into the intuitive guidance they provide Unsettling Narratives Clare

Bradford, 2007 Children's books seek to assist children to understand themselves and their world Unsettling Narratives Postcolonial Readings of Children's Literature demonstrates how settler society texts position child readers as citizens of postcolonial nations how they represent the colonial past to modern readers what they propose about race relations and how they conceptualize systems of power and government Clare Bradford focuses on texts produced since 1980 in Canada the United States Australia and New Zealand and includes picture books novels and films by Indigenous and non-Indigenous publishers and producers From extensive readings the author focuses on key works to produce a thorough analysis rather than a survey Unsettling Narratives opens up an area of scholarship and discussion the use of postcolonial theories relatively new to the field of children's literature and demonstrates that many texts recycle the colonial discourses naturalized within mainstream cultures DREAM PREDICTIONS -Common Dream Symbols and Their Meanings Arunthathi Rav, There are days when no one can dream of our lives In general no one can tell how dreams bring happiness or sorrow Research has shown that in general a well-to-do man sees at least four kinds of dreams every day Some dreams last long Unrelated incidents happen within that dream Before we know what the outcome is either we will wake up or our dreams will fall apart Everyone wants dreams to come true Good dreams come true immediately When the pulse and the speed of the morning If that does not happen the next day will not be exciting The dream may be the miracle of telling the Lord what events are going to happen in our lives Laurie's Complete Fortune Teller - Astrology, Cards, Charms, Dice, Dominoes,
