The child, wearing a red and white long-sleeved shirt and blue jeans, is also leaning forward and looking at the same thing. Spare The Rod:

Our Misunderstood Bible Henry Clay Trumbull, 1907 Having found the gain to himself and to some others in the added light on Bible terms and truths by these explanations and corrections the writer presents the statements and suggestions herewith hoping that they may help still others Yet none of the views here expressed are to be accepted by a Bible reader unless he find them to be conformable to Bible teachings on his more careful study But in any event good can hardly fail to come of readers being stimulated to a closer examination of the grounds for believing or of questioning as to the ideas they have been accustomed to connect with certain Bible words and terms and truths Preface The Proverbial "Pied Piper"

Kevin J. McKenna, 2009 With more than one hundred fifty books and three hundred published articles on proverb studies that have attracted wide attention of folklorists around the world it is little wonder that international scholars look upon Wolfgang Mieder as the modern day Pied Piper of paremiology For this festschrift some of the world's leading proverb and folklore scholars have come together to commemorate Mieder's sixty fifth birthday Authors from Russia Eastern and Western Europe Israel and the United States have contributed essays representative of the scope and breadth of Mieder's own impressive scholarship The Proverbial Pied Piper honors Wolfgang Mieder's legendary contributions to the study of proverbs and contains new scholarship by some of the best paremiologists in the world Should We Spare the Rod? William Louis
