The Heart Of The Storm:

The Heart of the Storm David Beaty,1964      To the Heart of the Storm Will Eisner,2008 An extraordinary autobiography story from a legend in American comics      At the Heart of It All Kari Kilgore,2021-06-30 On Certain Days the Hurt Feels Brand New Most people love the music computer in Sara s brain Earworm lyrics Trivia and connections Obscure cover versions She knows it all Only one person knows the obsession behind Sara s knowledge And the heartache she hides Can a break with the past show Sarah a new future Originally appeared in Obsessions An Anthology of Original Fiction Stark Publishing 2020 An excerpt from At the Heart of It All The Day All Her Best Defenses Fail Sarah may have been born with the computer but her father had at least installed the software and optimized it for music The massive database she d been filling as long as she could remember Anything that changed after that hadn t been his fault Not now Not while you re in this traffic She took advantage of a dead stop on the highway and called up Jimi Hendrix and Crosstown Traffic to distract herself Keeping the calendars out of her office helped some with this dreadful painful month Same with turning off the displays on her phone and her computers at work Even if she d followed her occasional impulse and spent all of October in some sort of technology and communication void she d know Some part of Sara knew exactly what day it was Every single year      Sumerian Hymnology Mark E. Cohen,1981-12-31 The ersemma is one of two possibly three genres of literature written in the Sumerian Emesal dialect Texts exist in copies from the Old Babylonian period although they were authored much earlier They were preserved likely because they were part of a fixed liturgy recited on select days of the month Mark E Cohen discusses the characteristics of this genre and its evolution the circumstances of its composition and the cultic setting in which it was typically used He also provides a catalog of examples as well as transliterations and translations of selected texts with commentary Examples come from the British Museum the Yale Babylonian Collection the University Museum Collection the Oriental Institute the Staatliche Museen Berlin and the Metropolitan Museum      The Heart of Mabel Ware ,1856      Terror in the Heart of Freedom Hannah Rosen,2009-06-01 The meaning of race in the antebellum southern United States was anchored in the racial exclusivity of slavery coded as black and full citizenship coded as white as well as male These traditional definitions of race were radically disrupted after emancipation when citizenship was granted to all persons born in the United States and suffrage was extended to all men Hannah Rosen persuasively argues that in this critical moment of Reconstruction contests over the future meaning of race were often fought on the terrain of gender Sexual violence specifically white on black rape emerged as a critical arena in postemancipation struggles over African American citizenship Analyzing the testimony of rape survivors Rosen finds that white men often staged elaborate attacks meant to enact prior racial hierarchy Through their testimony black women defiantly rejected such hierarchy and claimed their new and equal rights Rosen explains how heated debates over interracial marriage were also attempts by whites to undermine African American men s demands for suffrage and a voice in public affairs By connecting histories of rape and discourses of social equality with struggles over citizenship Rosen shows how gendered violence and gendered rhetorics of race together produced a climate of terror for black men and women seeking to exercise their new rights as citizens Linking political events at the city state and regional levels Rosen places gender and sexual violence at the heart of understanding the reconsolidation of race and racism in the postemancipation United States The Heart of Man Jon Kalman
