The Knowing Heart Lilian I. Sayce, 1936 The Digitally Divided Self Ivo Quartiroli, 2011 It isn't easy to find an informed and critical look at the impact of digital media practices on human lives and minds Ivo Quartiroli offers an informed critique based in both an understanding of technology and of human consciousness Howard Rheingold author of The Virtual Community and Smart Mobs Aware of the profound and rapid psychological and social metamorphosis we are going through as we go digital without paying attention Ivo Quartiroli is telling us very precisely what we are gaining and what we are losing of the qualities and privileges that glued as we are to one screen or another we take for granted in our emotional cognitive and spiritual life This book is a wake up call Steve Jobs and Bill Gates should read it Derrick de Kerckhove Professor Facolt di sociologia Universit Federico II Naples former Director of the McLuhan Program in Culture and Technology People today especially young people live more on the Internet than in the real world This has subtle and not so subtle effects on their thinking and personality It is high time to review these effects to see whether they are a smooth highway to a bright interconnected future or possibly a deviation that could endanger health and wellbeing for the individual as well as for society Ivo Quartiroli undertakes to produce this review and does so with deep understanding and dedicated humanism His book should be read by everyone whether he or she is addicted to the Internet or has second thoughts about it Ervin Laszlo President the Club of Budapest and Chancellor the Giordano Bruno Globalshift University Ivo Quartiroli here addresses one of the most pressing questions forced upon us by our latest technologies In disturbing the deepest relations between the user s faculties and the surrounding world our electric media all of them without exception create profound disorientation and subsequent discord personal and cultural Few subjects today demand greater scrutiny Dr Eric McLuhan Author and Lecturer Ivo Quartiroli is mining the rich liminal territory between humans and their networks With the integrity of a scientist and the passion of artist he forces us to reconsider where we end and technology begins Or when Douglas Rushkoff Media Theorist and author of Cyberia Media Virus Life Inc and Program or Be Programmed You might find what he writes to be challenging irritating even blasphemous and sacrilegious If so he has proven his point The Internet Ivo suggests might just be the new opium of the masses Agree with him or not no other book to date brings together the multitude of issues related to how the seductions of technology impinge upon and affect the development of the self and soul Michael Wesch Associate Professor of Digital Ethnography Kansas State University It is nearly half a century since Marshall McLuhan pointed out that the medium is the message In the interim digital technologies have found an irresistible hook on our minds With the soul s quest for the infinite usurped by the ego s desire for unlimited power the Internet and social media have stepped in to fill our deepest needs for communication knowledge and creativity even intimacy and sexuality Without being grounded in those human qualities which are established through experience and inner exploration we are vulnerable to being seduced into outsourcing our minds and our fragile identities Intersecting media studies psychology and spirituality The Digitally Divided Self exposes the nature of the malleable mind and explores the religious and philosophical influences which leave it obsessed with the incessant flow of information
