The Landscape In Impressionism:

Impressionism Museum Barberini Publications, 2017-03-23 This magnificently illustrated book draws on the latest scholarly research to reveal new perspectives on the techniques and influences of Impressionist landscapes This breathtaking survey takes a multi faceted approach in its study of 90 seminal works of Impressionist art Accompanying the inaugural exhibition of the new Museum Barberini in Potsdam Germany the book features contributions by six leading scholars who examine a wide range of themes from the use of repetition and variation to the ecological climate in which the artists worked Underlying and unifying these perspectives is the inexorable change of the landscape itself Poised on the brink of the Modern Era the Impressionists documented the effects of industrialization on French landscapes Amid these transitions the artists used the landscape itself to advance their own explorations into the field of color theory The book also explores the influence of modern poetry and photography on the creation of these paintings With beautiful reproductions from the masters including Monet Pissarro Sisley and Renoir this volume takes an exciting new approach to the study of Impressionism while introducing audiences to the holdings of remarkable new museum The Landscape in Impressionism Simonetta Venturi, 1993 Impressionist Painting for the Landscape Cindy Salaski, George Gallo, 2015-01-15 Learn to see think and paint like an Impressionist master Monet Renoir Van Gogh Redfield Garber These beloved Impressionist masters continue to inspire with their rich and vivid artistry Their styles and methods are alive and thriving today in the work of contemporary master George Gallo who will lead you through all you need to know from start to finish to create Impressionist inspired landscape paintings in oil More than 50 powerful lessons tips and secrets for composition brushwork value lighting effects color and movement 80 stunning landscape paintings including country roads waterfalls parks woodlands harbor scenes and more 7 step by step painting demonstrations that reinforce the importance of composition movement color and light Impressionist Painting for the Landscape will help artists of every skill level achieve more expressive and personally satisfying results Dive in to discover classic oil painting traditions new perspectives on the medium and fresh paintings to inspire you to new heights Impressionism and the Modern Landscape James H. Rubin, 2008-04-03 The examples convey not only these major themes but also the painters belief in the progress of civilization through science and industry The book thus expands the scope of Impressionist celebrations of modernity to include what might be called Impressionism's other landscape and proposes that in the Impressionists effort to forge a modern landscape art those signs of modernity defined their vision most clearly BOOK JACKET Impressions of Light George T. M. Shackelford, Fronia E. Wissman, 2002 It takes a broad view yet never loses sight of the intricacy and variation that make the landscape so endlessly appealing BOOK JACKET A Romance with the Landscape University of Kentucky. Art Museum, Huntington Museum of Art (Huntington, W. Va.), 2006 Nineteenth century France produced a cadre of artists whose first impulse was to escape the turmoil of Paris and seek refuge in the countryside where they created an art grounded in their fresh responses to the natural world Such artists as Charles Emile Jacque and Jean Francois Millet discovered a quiet heroism and even a spiritual quality in those working the land while others like Julien Dupre featured attractive young laborers toiling in picturesque settings that did not hint of hard work or the often harsh realities of agricultural labor Social and political ideologies are coded into the landscape in subtle ways in many paintings Rarely seen paintings from public and private collections illustrate the metamorphosis from the neoclassical ideal to the Modern over the course of the nineteenth century through the lens of landscape art Contributors include Gabriel P Weisberg and Janet Whitmore

Critical Readings in Impressionism and Post-Impressionism Mary Tompkins Lewis, 2023-12-22 The essays in this wide ranging beautifully illustrated volume capture the theoretical range and scholarly rigor of recent criticism that has fundamentally transformed the study of French Impressionist and Post Impressionist art Readers are invited to consider the profound issues and penetrating questions that lie beneath this perennially popular body of work as the contributors examine the art world of late nineteenth century France including detailed looks at Monet Manet Pissarro Degas C zanne Morisot Seurat Van Gogh and Gauguin The authors offer fascinating new perspectives placing the artworks from this period in wider social and historical contexts They explore these painters pictorial and market strategies the critical reception and modern criteria the paintings engendered and the movement's historic role in the formation of an avant garde tradition Their research reflects the wealth of new documents critical approaches and scholarly exhibitions that have fundamentally altered our understanding of Impressionism and Post Impressionism These essays several of which have previously been familiar only to scholars provide instructive models of in depth critical analysis and of the competing art historical methods that have crucially reshaped the field Contributors Carol Armstrong T J Clark Stephen F Eisenman Tamar Garb Nicholas Green Robert L Herbert John House Mary Tompkins Lewis Michel Melot Linda Nochlin Richard Schiff Debora Silverman Paul Tucker Martha Ward

Monet, Renoir and the Impressionist Landscape National Gallery of Ireland, Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, 2002

Impressionism John House, 2004-01-01 A new perspective on Impressionist art that offers revealing fresh interpretations of familiar paintings In this handsome book a leading authority on Impressionist painting offers a new view of this admired and immensely popular art form John House examines the style and technique subject matter and imagery exhibiting and marketing strategies and social political and ideological contexts of Impressionism in light of the perspectives that have been brought to it in the last twenty years When all of these diverse approaches are taken into account he argues Impressionism can be seen as a movement that challenged both artistic and political authority with its uncompromisingly modern subject matter and its determinedly secular worldview Moving from the late 1860s to the early 1880s House analyzes the paintings and career strategies of the leading Impressionist artists pointing out the ways in which they countered the dominant conventions of the contemporary art world and evolved their distinctive and immediately recognizable manner of painting Focusing closely on the technique composition and imagery of the paintings themselves and combining this fresh appraisal with recent historical studies of Impressionism House explores how pictorial style could generate social and political meanings and opens new ways of looking at this luminous art The Art of Impressionism Anthea Callen, 2000-01-01 Drawing on scientific studies of pigments and materials artists treatises colourmen s archives and contemporary and modern accounts Anthea Callen demonstrates how raw materials and paintings are profoundly interdependent She analyses the material constituents of oil painting and the complex processes of making entailed in all aspects of artistic production discussing in particular oil painting methods for landscapists and the impact of plein air light on figure painting studio practice and display Insisting that the meanings of paintings are constituted by and within the cultural matrices that produced them Callen argues that the real modernity of the Impressionist enterprise lies in the painters material practices BOOK JACKET
