Volume Two Ian Broinowski,2018-09-04 This is a narrative about three Gray families and their new lives in their chosen home of Van Diemen s Land in the late 1830s and the reasons which propelled each one into such a momentous change However their family journey originated centuries before in Ireland during the tumultuous English Civil War when their ancestor Lt Colonel John Grey stepped ashore at Ringsend Dublin as part of Cromwell s Army on the 15th August 1649 Their story embraces just about all of our human emotions through the quest for a better life not only for themselves but for their children and future generations In essence like most emigrants this was their primary motivation although compelling events such as war economic and social challenges beyond the individual were also at play The Greys were no different from thousands of other families who chose to travel to Australia and by exploring their lives experiences and destinies we can learn just a little more about life in early colonial Tasmania Laois Folk Tales Nuala Hayes,2015-08-03 From miracle working saints and shape shifting witches to silent ghosts and wailing banshees County Laois is teeming with folk tales and a selection of the best drawn from historical sources and interviews have been brought to life here by storyteller by Nuala Hayes This book will take you on a journey through the county s varied landscape from the rugged Slieve Bloom Mountains to its fertile plains with tales of talking cats bewitched butter fairy changelings and holy fish On the way we will meet characters like the great warrior Conall Cearnach from whom the people of Laois are said to be descended Moll Anthony the wisewoman of the Red Hills and the White Lady said to haunt Durrow Castle to this day Richly illustrated by internationally renowned artist Rita Duffy these enchanting stories can be enjoyed and shared time and again A New History of Ireland, Volume VI W.
