The Last Days Of District Six:

The Last Days of District Six, 1996 Heritage Interpretation Marion Blockley, Alison Hems, 2013-01-11 An essential guide to present practice and policy concerning issues in heritage management Heritage Interpretation draws on the accumulated expertise and international reputation for excellence of the UK heritage industry to describe and analyze best practice in heritage interpretation The contributors all responsible for developing best practices come from a range of heritage organizations including English Heritage The National Trust Historic Scotland CADW and National Parks They draw on examples from throughout the UK from public art and twentieth century military remains to cathedrals and urban heritage and discuss the range of interpretive options available and how they can be appropriately tailored to specific places and audiences Providing practical guidance on interpretive techniques the book provides insights into the philosophies and thinking that underpins their adoption in particular contexts This clear and easy guide is an valuable addition to the reading list of any student of history or heritage studies Hyper City Peter J.M. Nas, Annemarie Samuels, 2013-10-28 First published in 2006 Cities are sites of multiple meanings and symbols ranging from statues and street names to festivals and architecture Some times the symbolic side of urbanism is so strong that it outshines reality then we speak of hypercity Urban symbolic ecology and hypercity studies are relatively new fields that deal with the production distribution and consumption of symbols and meanings in urban space timely concerns in an era of increasing globalization and competition between mega urban regions This volume presents a detailed introduction to the new fields followed by case studies of the cultural layer of symbolism in Brussels Belgium Cape Town South Africa Cuenca Ecuador Delft The Netherlands Kingston Jamaica Ljubljana Slovenia Paris France and cities in Italy and Indonesia It amply demonstrates that the time has come for urban symbolic ecology and hypercity studies to be included in regular urban studies training in the fields of anthropology sociology social geography and architecture Rethinking South Africa's Past Christopher J. Lee, Andrew Offenburger, 2025-03-18 This book presents key historical scholarship published in Safundi from 1999 to 2024 tracing South Africa's past through approaches of comparative history transnational history and visual history in addition to addressing the importance of topics like gender labor and class dynamics as well as regional historiographies The first section of the book focuses on comparative history as a founding method for Safundi given the journal's origins in American and South African studies while also recalibrating this approach through a variety of topics cities biographies and practices of violence rather than nation states writ large Drawing upon innovative sources of evidence the second section moves beyond the comparative method to address transnational histories as a new narrative technique for storytelling and analysis Whether issues of education immigration or visiting musicians to South Africa these chapters demonstrate the importance of a post national approach for understanding the past The sections that follow fan out into other subject areas including the uses of visual history gender roles class cultures and environmental history all of which illuminate connections between South African history and other parts of the world This book will be an indispensable resource for scholars students activists and policymakers as well as those readers who are generally interested in understanding South Africa's complex history over the past several centuries Desire Lines Noëleen Murray, Nick Shepherd, Martin Hall, 2007-08-07 This ground breaking new work draws together a cross section of South African scholars to provide a lively and comprehensive review of the under researched area of heritage practice following the introduction of the National Heritage Resources Act Looking at the daily heritage debates from naming streets to projects such as the Gateway to Robben Island Desire Lines addresses the innovative strategies that have emerged in the practice of defining identifying and developing heritage sites In a unique multi disciplinary approach contributions are featured from a broad spectrum of fields including the built environment and public culture and education Showcasing work from tour operators and museum curators alongside that of university based scholars this book is a comprehensive and singularly authoritative volume that charts the development of new and emergent public cultures in post apartheid South Africa through the making and unmaking of its urban spaces This pioneering collection of essays and case studies is an indispensable guide for those working within or studying heritage practice Aftermath John Schofield, 2009-02-08 Conflict and Battlefield Archaeology is a growing and important field in archaeology with implications on the state of the world today how humanity has prepared for reacted to and dealt with the consequences of conflict at a national and international level As the field grows there is an increasing need for research and development in this area Written by one of the most prominent scholars in this field of growing interest Aftermath offers a clear and important overview to research in the field It will become an essential source of information for scholars already involved in conflict archaeology as well as those just starting to explore the field It offers access to previously hard to find but important research Museum Frictions Ivan Karp, 2006-12-07 This third volume in a bestselling series on culture society and museums examines the effects of globalization on contemporary museum heritage and exhibition practices African Posters Giorgio Miescher, Dag Henrichsen, 2004 Trauma Informed Placemaking Cara Courage, Anita McKeown, 2024-04-16 Trauma Informed Placemaking offers an introduction to understanding trauma and healing in place It offers insights that researchers and practitioners can apply to their place based practice learning from a global cohort of place leaders and communities The book introduces the ethos and application of the trauma informed approach to working in place with references to historical and contemporary trauma including trauma caused by placemakers It introduces the potential of place and of place practitioners to heal Offering 20 original frameworks toolkits and learning exercises across 33 first and third person chapters multi disciplinary insights are presented throughout These are organised into four sections that lead the reader to an awareness of how trauma and healing operate in place The book offers a first gathering of the current praxis in the field how we can move from trauma in place to healing in place and concludes with calls to action for the trauma informed placemaking approach to be adopted This book will be essential reading for students researchers and practitioners interested in people and places from artists and architects policy makers and planners community development workers and organisations placemakers to local and national governments It will appeal to the disciplines of human geography sociology politics cultural studies psychology and to placemakers planners and policymakers and those working in community development Matériel Culture Colleen M. Beck, William Gray Johnson, John Schofield, 2003-09-02 Mat riel culture encompasses the material remains of conflict from buildings and monuments to artefacts and militia as well as human remains This collection of essays from an international range of contributors illustrates the diversity in this material record highlights the difficulties and challenges in preserving presenting and interpreting it and above all demonstrates the significant role mat riel culture can play in contemporary society Among the many studies are the culture of shells the archaeology of nuclear testing grounds Cambodia s killing fields the Berlin Wall and the biography of a medal the reappearance of Argentina s disappeared World War II concentration camps
