Cliometrics of the Family Claude Diebolt, Auke Rijpma, Sarah Carmichael, Selin Dilli, Charlotte Störmer, 2019-01-31 This contributed volume applies cliometric methods to the study of family and households in order to derive global patterns and determine their impact on economic development Family and households are a fundamental feature of societies and economies They are found throughout history and are the place where key decisions on fertility labour force participation education consumption are made This is especially relevant for the position of women The book gathers key insights from a variety of fields economics history demography anthropology biology to shed light on the relation between family organisation and the long term process of economic development The Croom Family and Goodwood

Plantation William Warren Rogers, Erica R. Clark, 2010-01-01 One of the most elegant mansions in Florida Goodwood was built over a century ago and stands today as one of Tallahassee's grandest historical monuments It was once the center of a thriving plantation founded by the Croom family of North Carolina who in the 1820s sought to revive their fortunes in the newly opened Florida territory William Warren Rogers and Erica R Clark tell the story of this family and their legacy shedding new light on many aspects of antebellum family life plantation management and race relations They describe how brothers Hardy and Bryan Croom developed Goodwood Plantation to over four thousand acres with nearly two hundred slaves before Hardy and his family were killed in a shipwreck and how a twenty year lawsuit complicated by questions of survivorship and residency denied Bryan control of the estate This meticulously detailed account drawing extensively on family correspondence and court records is a story of humaneness hard work and family values but also of selfishness and greed that reveals an intriguing chapter of southern history Money, Trade and Economic Growth Harry Gordon

Johnson, 1962 The Family in Business Bernard Liebowitz, 2011-09-30 Family businesses are a breed unto themselves Though they share many features in common with other business models they possess unique traits that clearly differentiate them Similarly though consultation to family businesses is in many respects what other businesses experience when seeking assistance those features that set family business consultation apart are so distinctive that failure to honor and understand them can and does too often lead to disaster The needs of those family members seeking consultation share a portrait in some ways similar to those in non FOBs but in a majority of situations are so distinctive and potentially explosive that disaster lurks on the edges ready to appear if not respected The audience of this book are both consultants to family businesses and family members who are looking for such assistance Both require knowledge of each other's spheres of experience and perspective for effective consultation to occur for the consultant an awareness of family dynamics as intertwined with family business for family members a clarification of what can be expected and delivered In addition to the interface between family dynamics and the family's business we will explore the key tasks in family business consultation succession planning selection of the successor conflict resolution defining the role of family members in the business how to involve the management team in succession planning determining what happens after succession and building a board of advisors Annual Report of the State Board of Health for the Fiscal Year Ending November 30 ...
