Livestock Guardian Dog Roland Berger,2022-05-26 Guard and Protection dogs The best safety for your livestock Are you interested in the breeds of guard dogs You have made a good choice Herd protection dogs are something very special and that in every respect They impress not only with their imposing size but also by their external appearance This can be very striking depending on the breed While some come up with a beautiful long and white coat others have shaggy hair that looks like dreadlocks Many of these guard dogs have in common that they are descended from Asian dogs which came to Europe many thousands of years ago through the migrations These dogs already possessed the important qualities of natural protection and guarding instincts and also the gift of acting independently and making decisions without human interference The contents of the book are Difference guard dog and herding dog A portrait of guard dogs Which breeds are there Education of the dogs Herding dogs at home FCI Standards Summary Even the diet of the guard dogs which is still unusual today can be traced back to this time They are not fed like conventional domestic dogs but much lower in protein Furthermore these dogs are also able to digest dairy products which is not the case with normal dogs and can lead to digestive disorders Now the future owner of such a dog should be aware however that likewise the attitude and education can lead to considerable problems Such a large dog needs a lot of space and it is not enough to have a small garden The demands of a guard dog are somewhat higher and you must be able to fulfill them so that your companion can lead a species appropriate life As you can see from these few lines a guard dog is not a dog for everyone It belongs in absolutely experienced hands If you belong to these experienced hands inform yourself in this guide about the different breeds of guard dogs Learn what belongs to their strengths and weaknesses and whether such a special dog is also suitable as a family dog Have fun reading and learn Protector of the Home and Family (Guard Dogs - Selection and Training) David

James,2022-09-04 In today s world with its atmosphere of cruelty and increasing violence people are more than ever thinking about the need to somehow protect themselves and their loved ones One option is a guard dog You can also choose from firearms various alarm systems and mastery of martial arts In addition there are private agencies that provide protection for those who need it and are willing to pay But in general the choice is quite limited Those who settled on a dog usually ask a lot of questions Our goal is to answer them as far as possible by talking about the real state of affairs and about the myths associated with service dogs as well as about the responsibility to others and before the law that falls on the owners of guard dogs Step by step the reader will go through the entire path of the owner of such a dog from choosing a puppy to special training The book concludes with several true stories about guard dogs The main thing that motivated us to start working on this book is the desire to help future owners of guard dogs We decided to compile for them something like a short guide to the country which is called Training and put on the map all the roads leading there We didn t want anyone to think that our method was the only possible one No there are different methods different styles of training different techniques We describe what we ourselves use in practice but at the same time we constantly emphasize everything must be done under the supervision of a professional trainer We will consider that we have reached our goal if our book at least partly satisfies someone s curiosity helps someone understand the benefits of non violent training and understand the difficult problems that confront a person who has decided trust the dog for your own safety and security his families Guard Dog Training

Rosie Jones,1988-01-01 Tells how to select a suitable dog describes useful training equipment and demonstrates basic obedience as well as guard dog training
