Lampblack Ouida,1892 Holiday Specials on Television, 1939-2021 Vincent Terrace,2023-01-27 In November 1939 NBC's fledgling television station W2XBS broadcast the first known holiday special The Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. Despite its small viewership, very few TV sets existed at the time; the experimental telecast was a harbinger of a now beloved American tradition: the holiday television special. This book offers a thorough account of holiday television specials in the United States from 1939 to 2021, highlighting variety shows, comedic performances, musical spectacles, and more. From familiar favorites like 1964's Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer to campy one-offs like 1985's He-Man and She-Ra: A Christmas Special, the 1140 programs are covered alphabetically and feature performance casts, production credits, and storylines for each. Three appendices cover lost holiday specials along with Christmas and Halloween-themed episodes of popular television series.

"Twice the Thrills! Twice the Chills!" Bryan Senn,2019-03-19 In the mid 1950s, to combat declining theater attendance, film distributors began releasing pre-packaged genre double bills, including many horror and science fiction double features. Though many of these films were low budget and low end, others such as Invasion of the Body Snatchers, Horror of Dracula, and The Fly became bona fide classics. Beginning with Universal International's 1955 pairing of Revenge of the Creature and Cult of the Cobra, 147 officially sanctioned horror and sci-fi double bills were released over a 20-year period. This book presents these double features year by year and includes production details, historical notes, and critical commentary for each film.
