The Krushchev Proposal:

The Last Gentleman Bruce Smith, 2022-01-04 A behind the scenes account of American foreign policymaking in the late twentieth century Tom Hughes assistant secretary of state for intelligence and research made an ominous prediction in 1965 In a seminal but less well known document of the Vietnam War Hughes predicted that the Democratic Party and the national consensus underlying the nation's foreign policy would break apart if the war escalated Hughes drafted the memo for his friend and fellow Minnesotan for whom he had previously worked as legislative counsel Senator Hubert Humphrey Humphrey had just been elected Vice President The memo called on President Johnson to seek negotiations to end the war but clearly failed to persuade him Tom Hughes saw his prediction come true Hughes served in the State Department through 1970 and then for 20 years as president of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace He worked to reestablish a professional bipartisan foreign policy for the United States and to make the foreign service more open and democratic He also built the Carnegie Endowment into the nation's leading foreign policy think tank and he remained influential in foreign policy circles In this impressive biography Bruce L R Smith tells the story of this remarkable life which also reflects much of the story of America in the last half of the twentieth century Through the eyes diary and notes of a key participant the book provides a contemporaneous perspective on such major events as the Bay of Pigs fiasco and the CIA's Operation Mongoose against the Castro regime the Cuban missile crisis Vietnam and the elections of the 1960s This book is a firsthand behind the scenes account of the people who dealt with the great issues and made critical life and death decisions for America during the cold war Foreign Relations of the United States, 1961-1963 Charles S. Sampson, John Michael Joyce, David S. Patterson, 1998 State Department Publication 10544 Edited by Charles S Sampson et al Presents a full accounting of the overall nature and structure of United States Soviet relations together with a more detailed documentary record of those high level meetings discussions and policy debates on the broad range of issues making up the diplomacy of the cold war

Khrushchev's Strategy and Its Meaning for America University of Pennsylvania. Foreign Policy Research Institute, United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1960 Khrushchev's Thaw and National Identity in Soviet Azerbaijan, 1954-1959 Jamil Hasanli, 2014-12-18 On February 25 1956 Soviet leader Nikita S Khrushchev delivered the so called secret speech in the Twentieth Party Congress of the CPSU in which he denounced Stalin's transgressions and the cult of personality around the deceased dictator Replete with sharp criticism of the Terror of the late 1930s the unpreparedness of the USSR for the Nazi invasion numerous wartime blunders and the deportation of various nationalities the speech reverberated throughout the subordinate Soviet republics For republics such as Azerbaijan the speech was an unmistakable signal to readjust the entire political orientation and figure out ways to redefine governance in post Stalin era Previously frozen under the mortal threat of Stalinist persecution various forms of national self expression began to experience rapid revival under the Khrushchev thaw Encouraged by the winds of change at the Center the Azeris cautiously began to reclaim possession of their administrative domain Among other local initiatives the declaration of the Azerbaijani language as the official language was one step that stood out in its audacity for it was not pre arranged with the Kremlin and defied the modus operandi of the Soviet leadership Somewhat reformist in his intentions yet ignorant of the non Slavic peripheries Mr Khrushchev had not foreseen the scenarios that would unfold as a result of its new tone and the developments that would come to be interpreted as the rise of nationalism in the republics Jamil Hasanli s research on 1950s Azerbaijan sheds light on this watershed period in Soviet history while also furnishing the reader with a greater understanding of the root causes of the dissolution of the USSR East-West Trade United States.
