the game maintaining a facade of straightness while privately becoming his true self and building a lasting relationship with his future husband He navigated this obstacle course at a time when his MLB career was just taking off and when North America was consumed by the HIV AIDS epidemic Scott s story isn t only about his leading a sort of double life then opening himself up to the world and discovering a new generosity of spirit It s also a baseball story filled with insights and memorable anecdotes that come so naturally from someone who spent decades among the world s greatest baseball players managers and games Scott s story is fascinating both for his umpiring career and for his being a pioneer for LGBTQ people within baseball and across sports
