 Doctrine from the Bible to the Present* John H. Leith, Christianity has always been a creedal religion in that it has always been theological It was rooted in the theological tradition of ancient Israel which was unified by its historical credos and declaratory affirmations of faith No pre theological era has been discovered in the New Testament or in the history of the Christian community From the beginning Christianity has been theological involving men in theological reflection and calling them to declarations of faith A non theological Christianity has simply never endured although such has been attempted for instance by individual seers in the sixteenth century and also by collaborators with totalitarian ideologies in the twentieth century The creeds presented here range from the ancient faith of the Hebrews and the creed like formulas of the New Testament to the Barmen declaration of 1934 framed by the Christians in Germany who faced the threat of Nazism and the Batak Creed of 1951 in which Indonesian Christians gave authentic expression to their religious belief in the idiom of their own culture All the creeds are in some sense official and every major division of Christendom is represented including the Younger Churches The volume ends with the messages of the most important assemblies dealing with the Ecumenical Movement This single volume containing all the major theological affirmations of the Christian community is a source book for the study of Christian theology It comprises a record of the Church's interpretation of the Bible in the past and an authoritative guide to its interpretation on the present Indeed it is a guide to an understanding of the Christian interpretation

 For 300 years Franciscans were at the forefront of the spread of Catholicism in the New World In the late seventeenth century Franciscans developed a far reaching systematic missionary program in Spain and the Americas After founding the first college of propaganda fide in the Mexican city of Quer taro the Franciscan Order established six additional colleges in New Spain ten in South America and twelve in Spain From these colleges Franciscans proselytized Indians in frontier territories as well as Catholics in rural and urban areas in eighteenth century Spain and Spanish America To Sin No More is the first book to study these colleges their missionaries and their multifaceted sweeping missionary programs By focusing on the recruitment of non Catholics to Catholicism as well as the deepening of religious fervor among Catholics David Rex Galindo shows how the Franciscan colleges expanded and shaped popular Catholicism in the eighteenth century Spanish Atlantic world This book explores the motivations driving Franciscan friars their lives inside the colleges their training and their ministry among Catholics an often overlooked duty that paralleled missionary deployments Rex Galindo argues that Franciscan missionaries aimed to reform or reawaken Catholic parishioners just as much as they sought to convert non Christian Indians The Kingdom of Christ, and the Errors of Romanism Richard Whately, 1847 Sermons, or Homilies ...
