Gunning,2005 With its inclusive view of literacy *Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students*emphasizes methods that have been validated by research and practice while delivering the basics of all major aspects of reading and writing The Fifth Edition of this best selling book continues to be a comprehensive practical text that provides its readers with step by step guidance for teaching reading and writing Written by distinguished author Tom Gunning this text features sample lessons for virtually every major literacy skill strategy and offers numerous reinforcement suggestions and generous listings of materials With its careful balance between the theory and the practice readers are always given the theories behind the methods encouraging them to choose adapt and construct their own approaches as they create a balanced program of literacy instruction Special emphasis has been given to adapting instruction for English language learners struggling readers and writers and special needs students throughout the book Unlike comparable texts the new edition stresses effective steps for closing the gap between achieving and struggling readers as mandated by the No Child Left Behind legislation and Reading First Assessing and Correcting Reading and Writing Difficulties Thomas G. Gunning,2002 This text provides numerous examples and thorough coverage of procedures for assessing and instructing struggling readers of all ages In keeping with current theory the text emphasizes prevention and early intervention It is based on the premise that student performance is variable and that assessment and instruction are planned and modified to meet the varied needs and levels of students Gunning does not subscribe to a medical model that emphasizes deficiencies but rather focuses on what students can do This text calls for inclusion not exclusion but recognizes that struggling learners need expert carefully planned assessment and instruction Assessment coverage includes a grounding in basic concepts of tests and measurement While formal standardized measures are described emphasis is placed upon informal but highly regarded techniques such as the informal reading inventory miscue analysis running records observation think alouds holistic scoring of writing and portfolio assessment In addition to chapters devoted specifically to assessment ways to connect assessment and instruction are mentioned throughout the text Coverage of instructional techniques is thorough and practical Nine chapters are devoted to instructional techniques After-School Programming and Intrinsic Motivation Elaine Clanton Harpine, 2019-08-10 This book examines the eight year development of the Reading Orienteering Club after school program showing how to develop test change and adapt an after school program to fit the needs of the children who attend It includes case studies and data reports for each year and presents the theory application and program evaluation steps that workers in the field or students learning about program design must follow Chapters present first person accounts as well as statistical evaluations of the effectiveness of the reading program with each group of children In addition chapters highlight the changes that were made in program design and why each change was implemented giving practitioners the insights needed to adapt interventions and strategies to their own programs The book concludes with recommendations from the authors on how to run a successful after school reading program Topics featured in this book include The effect of intrinsic motivation to mental wellness in the classroom The importance of oral reading in correcting reading failure Group center approaches to teaching reading in the classroom How to select the best evaluation tool The challenges of mixing inner city and rural students in a reading program After School Programming and Intrinsic Motivation is an essential reference for scientist practitioners clinicians researchers and graduate students in such disciplines as school psychology childhood education social work psychotherapy and counseling and learning and instruction Catalog of Copyright Entries.
