Small Civil War:

Living a Big War in a Small Place Philip N. Racine, 2013-11-15 A history of life in one South Carolina city during the American Civil War featuring personal stories from those who were there Most of what we know about how the Civil War affected life in the Confederacy is related to cities troop movements battles and prominent political economic or military leaders Far less is known about the people who lived in small Southern towns remote from marching armies or battles Philip N Racine explores life in one such place Spartanburg South Carolina in an effort to reshape the contours of that great conflict By 1864 life in most of the Confederacy but especially in rural towns was characterized by scarcity high prices uncertainty fear and bad tempered neighbors Shortages of food were common People lived with constant anxiety that a soldiering father or son would be killed or wounded Taxes were high inflation was rampant good news was scarce and seemed to always be followed by bad The slave population was growing restive as their masters bad news was their good news Army deserters were threatening lawlessness accusations and vindictiveness colored the atmosphere and added to the anxiety fear and feeling of helplessness Often people blamed their troubles on the Confederate government in faraway Richmond Virginia Racine provides insight into these events through personal stories the plight of a slave the struggles of a war widow managing her husband s farm ten slaves and seven children and the trauma of a lowcountry refugee s having to forfeit a wealthy aristocratic way of life and being thrust into relative poverty and an alien social world All were part of the complexity of wartime Spartanburg District A well written account that not only captures the plight of both the black and white population but also offers some amazing cameos especially the life of Emily Lyle Harris who struggled to keep her large family in tact while her husband went off to war This is a lively read and a perfect book to assign for classes covering the Carolina Upstate during the American Civil War Edmund L Drago professor of history The College of Charleston and author of Confederate Phoenix Rebel Children and Their Families in South Carolina Living a Big War offers a fascinating unflinching look at the toll the Civil War took on Spartanburg clearly showing divisions that emerged and deftly employing stories of slaves women and other individuals to reveal the experiences of people on the home front Gaines M Foster dean College of Humanities and Social Sciences Louisiana State University and author of Ghosts of the Confederacy Defeat the Lost Cause and the Emergence of the New South 1865 1913 Small Civil War-CC , Six Miles from Charleston, Five Minutes to Hell James A. Morgan, 2022-09-06 A comprehensive account of this bitterly fought yet unjustly forgotten early conflict of the Civil War The small curiously named village of Secessionville just outside of Charleston South Carolina was the site of an early war skirmish the consequences of which might have been enormous had the outcome been different But the Confederate victory was quickly overshadowed by the Seven Days battles fought shortly afterward and far to the north The Battle of Secessionville was as bloody and hard fought as any similar sized encounter during the war But it was poorly planned and poorly led by the Union commanders whose behavior did not do justice to the courage of their men In Six Miles from Charleston Five Minutes to Hell historian Jim Morgan examines the lead up to the conflict the skirmish itself on June 16 1862 and its aftermath By including several original sources not previously explored he takes a fresh look at this small but potentially game changing fight and shows that it was of much more than merely local interest at the time Arming the Union Carl L. Davis,1973 The State of Jones Sally Jenkins,John Stauffer,2010-05-04 Covering the same ground as the major motion picture The Free State of Jones starring Matthew McConaughey this is the extraordinary true story of the anti slavery Southern farmer who brought together poor whites army deserters and runaway slaves to fight the Confederacy in deepest Mississippi Moving and powerful The Washington Post In 1863 after surviving the devastating Battle of Corinth Newton Knight a poor farmer from Mississippi deserted the Confederate Army and began a guerrilla battle against it A pro Union sympathizer in the deep South who refused to fight a rich man s war for slavery and cotton for two years he and other residents of Jones County engaged in an insurrection that would have repercussions far beyond the scope of the Civil War In this dramatic account of an almost forgotten chapter of American history Sally Jenkins and John Stauffer upend the traditional myth of the Confederacy as a heroic and unified Lost Cause revealing the fractures within the South A Small Civil War John Neufeld,1982 A young girl wages a campaign to stop a book from being banned in a small town in Iowa

Ethnicity and Intra-State Conflict Håkan Wiberg,Christian P. Scherrer,2018-12-21 Published in 1999 this text examines domestic wars looking at inter state relations only in as far as they are directly relevant to understand such wars The book aims to indicate how intra state war differs from the inter state war and focuses primarily on such domestic armed conflicts that at least have significant ethnonational components The book assesses how heterogeneous a category ethnic conflict is in terms of causes and consequences and gauges the complex interplay between class regionalism and ethnicity It is not limited to description and causal analysis but also attempts to assess suggestions as to what types of actors may contribute in what ways to avoiding ethnonational mobilization polarization avoiding militarization of manifest conflicts and de escalating militarized conflicts by looking for tenable generalizations on what types of approaches are fruitful in bringing about de escalation ceasefires political compromises peaceful division or peaceful integration reconciliation

From Missouri Thad Snow,2012-10-01 After years of subjecting the editors of St Louis newspapers to eloquent letters on subjects as diverse as floods tariffs and mules Thad Snow published his memoir From Missouri in his mid seventies in 1954 He was barely retired from farming for more than half a century mostly in the Missouri Bootheel or Swampeast Missouri as he called it Now back in print with a new introduction by historian Bonnie Stepenoff these sketches of a life a region and an era will delight readers new to this distinctive American voice as well as readers already familiar with this masterpiece of the American Midwest Snow purchased a thousand acres of southeast Missouri swampland in 1910 cleared it drained it and eventually planted it in cotton Although he employed sharecroppers he grew to become a bitter critic of the labor system after a massive flood and the Great Depression worsened conditions for these already burdened workers Shocking his fellow landowners Snow invited the Southern Tenant Farmers Union to organize the workers on his land He was even once accused of fomenting a strike and publicly threatened with horsewhipping Snow's admiration for Owen Whitfield the African American leader of the Sharecroppers Roadside Demonstration convinced him that nonviolent resistance could defeat injustice Snow embraced pacifism wholeheartedly and denounced all war as evil even as America mobilized for World War II after the attack on Pearl Harbor In the late 1940s and early 1950s he became involved with creating Missouri's conservation movement Near the end of his life he found a retreat in the Missouri Ozarks where he wrote this recollection of his life This unique and honest series of personal essays expresses the thoughts of a farmer a hunter a husband a father and grandfather a man with a soft spot for mules and dogs and all kinds of people Snow's prose reveals much about a way of life in the region during the first half of the twentieth century as well as the social and political events that affected the entire nation Whether arguing that a good stock dog should be left alone to do its work explaining the process of making swampland suitable for agriculture or putting forth his case for world peace Snow's ideas have a special authenticity because they did not come from an ivory tower or a think tank they came From Missouri Biennial report of the Louisiana State Board of Health. 1875-1877 ,1876
