Comprehensive Cosmetic Skincare in Cosmetic Dermatology & Skincare Practice Elena Hernandez-Jimenez, Vera Albanova, 2024-06-26 Comprehensive skincare with the help of cosmetic products is the key to maintaining health and youthfulness Even the most unproblematic skin needs care with properly selected cosmetic products that preserve the skin's own resources and help resist external influences that accelerate aging Moreover any popular injection or physical treatment can give maximum effect only if the patient consistently follows a professional and home based skincare regimen This is the responsibility of the skincare practitioner who must be able to not only perform the cosmetic procedure but also help select and explain to the patient the importance of using suitable products for their skin type. This book is dedicated to a detailed review and justification of the importance of all stages of cosmetic care for different skin types: preparation with cleansers and exfoliants; intensive action aimed both at stimulating metabolic processes in the skin and solving various aesthetic problems e.g. rejuvenation, whitening and completion of procedures with active cosmetic agents, thereby consolidating the results and increasing the renewed skin's protective potential. We explain in detail how classic and modern products work and why they can be used in some cases and are undesirable in others. We further discuss the most common questions that arise from skincare practitioners and their patients. In addition, separate sections of the book are devoted to skincare for the eyelids, lips and hands. The book is useful to all professionals working with skin: long-time specialists and novice skincare practitioners, dermatologists and consultants in selling skincare products as well as students. In addition, it is of interest to all people who want to have healthy and youthful skin; the publication will expand their understanding of what a beautician does and why it is so important to provide the necessary care for the skin and of course what exactly it should be.
