Language Education and the Challenges of Globalisation Edith Esch, Martin Solly, 2014-06-02 This book by an international group of scholars focuses on a number of sociolinguistic issues some of them complex and controversial linked to language education in the age of globalisation It examines these in different contexts of immigration and super diversity in the light of new mobilities and new conceptualisations of changing social realities and language communities The various investigations presented in the volume are often united and interconnected in their approaches to these key areas of focus although each peer edited chapter brings its own relevance to the work as a whole and each reflects the complexities and practices of the particular contexts and speech communities examined The insights presented provide a useful way of looking at the current state of the art of language education across the different levels of schooling and also within the various contexts analysed Because of the increasing interest in language education as a result of both the growing number of migrant children in schools and the globalisation associated with the rapid spread of English the volume will be of interest to a wide international readership including scholars and students of sociolinguistics and language education

Classroom Language Jill Richards, 2012 The acquisition and use of language are just as vital to children's learning when the newer classroom methods are being employed as ever they were when the more traditional approaches were being used Child centred learning has increasingly influenced language use and language work in the classroom mainly in the primary sector but also in the teaching of English and indirectly in the teaching of other subject areas including the sciences In this volume the author focuses mainly on the language of subject learning in the secondary schools She looks critically at some current notions concerned with language and learning and examines their translation into classroom practice She then develops a picture of the language demands made by other subject areas using collected language material and finally in the light of this evidence she attempts to identify the range of language in everyday use in schools goes on to draw conclusions and then makes recommendations

Language, Ability and Educational Achievement Christopher Winch, 2016-10-04 This title first published in 1990 engages in the current debates about the teaching of literacy and the reform of education Based on his dissatisfaction with prevalent theories of educational achievement and his experience of teaching in elementary schools Winch argues that the dichotomy of biological inheritance and environmental influence is inadequate to describe the diverse phenomena of educational achievement This title will be of interest to students of the philosophy of education
