Lavastida, 1999-11-22 Studies the situation related to access to health care in the US Approaches the problem first by analyzing its history then synthesizing different philosophical and practical solutions that have been attempted in order to reform health care and finally presents and analyzes ways to solve problems of access to health using an ethical approach nourished according to the guidance offered by the teachings of the Catholic Church Lacks a subject index      Justice and Truth Shall Meet Albert Nolan, Mary O'Driscoll, 2024-08-01 This is a reprint of book originally published in the 1980s but its message is still as relevant today as it was when it was first published In this book two Dominicans Albert Nolan OP and Mary O Driscoll OP write on biblical and theological themes of justice and truth from a Dominican perspective On truth Mary O Driscoll writes that it is evident that when we look at Dominic or Catherine or any of our great Dominican brothers and sisters all of these responded to truth not merely with their intellects but with their whole beings and that the greatest Dominicans have always been those who have combined the pursuit of speculative truth with that of existential truth who have known how to maintain these two dimensions of the search for truth not in conflict but as complementing one another While on justice Albert Nolan writes that justice is first and foremost an attribute of God God is just not only because God is fair and honest in all of God's dealings with human beings but also because all God's activity is a matter of putting right what is wrong in the world and all God's laws and commandments are simply demanding that justice be done In fact justice is the distinguishing characteristic of the God of the Bible Both authors were vocal critics of the apartheid regime What they wrote in the 1980s regarding race poverty injustice and inequality the fruit of many years of study and theological reflection remains of relevance for today      Brimming with God Barbara J. reflection but models various approaches to it Its use of cases furthermore models the use of case studies in theological education and pastoral practice more widely Caring for the Vulnerable Mary De Chesnay,2005 This text explores vulnerability from the perspective of individuals groups communities and populations and addresses the implication of that vulnerability for nurses nursing and nursing care Organized into six units the text presents a basic structure for caring for the vulnerable and forms a theoretical perspective on caring within a cultural context with the ultimate goal of providing culturally competent care Written specifically for nurses by nurses Caring for the Vulnerable is a timely and necessary response to the culturally diverse vulnerable populations for whom nurses must provide appropriate and precise care

Rhodes, 2023-10-10 Historically many churches and theologians defended and supported race based slavery and subsequent forms of racial hierarchy and violence The essays in Reparations and the Theological Disciplines argue that it is urgent that the theological disciplines engage the issue of reparations by revisiting Scripture and our theological traditions The time is now for remembrance reckoning and repair
