The Smell of Humans Ernő Szép,1994 The Holocaust in Hungary Zoltán Vági,László Csosz,Gábor

Kádár,2013-09-05 The Holocaust in Hungary provides a comprehensive documentary account of one of the most brutal and effective killing campaigns in history After Nazi Germany took control of Hungary late in World War II Jews were rounded up with unprecedented speed and sent directly to Auschwitz They would form the largest group of victims who perished in that camp The complex interplay between German and Hungarian actors brought about the annihilation of a once thriving Jewish community and the murder of hundreds of thousands of Jewish men women and children The authors present extensive reports testimonies and other primary sources of these events accompanied by in depth commentary that spans the years from the late 1930s to the fractured political landscape of postwar Hungary

Budapest Building Managers and the Holocaust in Hungary Istvan Pal Adam,2016-09-30 This book traces the role of Budapest building managers or concierges during the Holocaust It analyzes the actions of a group of ordinary citizens in a much longer timeframe than Holocaust scholars usually do Thus it situates the building managers activity during the war against the background of the origins and development of the profession as a by product of the development of residential buildings since the forming of Budapest Instead of presenting a snapshot from 1944 it shows that the building managers wartime acts were influenced and shaped by their long term social aspiration for greater recognition and their economic expectations Rather than focusing solely on pre war antisemitism this book takes into consideration other factors from the interwar period such as the culture of tipping In Budapest during June 1944 the Jewish residents were separated not into a single closed ghetto area but by the authorities designating dispersed apartment buildings as ghetto houses The almost 2 000 buildings were spread throughout the entire city and the non Jewish concierges serving in these houses represented the link between the outside and the inside world The empowerment of these building managers happened as a side effect of the anti Jewish legislation and these concierges found themselves in an intermediary position between the authorities and the citizens
