Snakes Daughter The Roads In And Out Of War Singular Lives:

Snake's Daughter Gail Hosking Gilberg, 1997 Gail Hosking Gilberg's father was a hero a valiant soldier decorated posthumously with the Medal of Honor a man who served his country throughout his entire adult life But Charles Hosking was a mystery to his daughter He was killed in Vietnam a week after her seventeenth birthday She buried the war the protests the medal and her military upbringing along with her father so much so that she felt cut off from herself It took more than twenty years for her to recognize the stirrings of a father and a daughter not yet at peace Gilberg began a journey two journeys really to find out who her father was and in the process to find herself She explored her buried rage shame and silence and examined how war had shaped her life In studying the photo albums that her father had left behind Gilberg found that the photographs demanded that she give voice to her feelings then release her silent words words that had no meaning in the world for her The result was an epiphany The photographs became the roads she took in and out of war and her words brought her father home Snake's Daughter reveals the crossroads where a soldier father's life and a daughter's life connect

Memoirs Of A Cold War Son Gaines Post, 2002-04-25 In 1951 Gaines Post was a gangly bespectacled introspective teenager preparing to spend a year in Paris with his professorial father and older brother his mother who suffered from extreme depression had been absent from the family for some time Ten years later now less gangly but no less introspective he was finishing a two year stint in the army in West Germany and heading toward Oxford on a Rhodes scholarship having narrowly escaped combat in the Berlin crisis of 1961 His quietly intense coming of age story is both self revealing and reflective of an entire generation of young men who came to adulthood before the Cuban Missile Crisis and the Vietnam War Post's experiences in high school in Madison Wisconsin and Paris his Camus influenced undergraduate years at Cornell University and his army service in Germany are set very effectively against the events of the Cold War McCarthyism and American crackdowns on dissidents American foreign and military policy in Western Europe in the nuclear age French and German life and culture crises in Paris and Berlin that nearly bring the West to war and the Post family to dissolution these are the larger scenes and subjects of his self disclosure as a contemplative conflicted Cold War agnostic His intelligent talented mother and her fragile health hover over Post's narrative informing his hesitant relationships with women and his acutely questioning sense of self worth His story is strongly academic and historical as well as political and military his perceptions and judgments lean toward no ideological extreme but remain true to the heroic ideals of his boyhood during the Second World War The Making of a Black Scholar Horace A. Porter, 2003 This captivating and illuminating book is a memoir of a young black man moving from rural Georgia to life as a student and teacher in the Ivy League as well as a history of the changes in American education that developed in response to the civil rights movement the war in Vietnam and affirmative action Born in 1950 Horace Porter starts out in rural Georgia in a house that has neither electricity nor running water In 1968 he leaves his home in Columbus Georgia thanks to an academic scholarship to Amherst College and lands in an upper class mainly white world Focusing on such experiences in his American education Porter s story is both unique and representative of his time The Making of a Black Scholar is structured around schools Porter attends Georgia s segregated black schools until he enters the privileged world of Amherst College He graduates spending one semester at Morehouse College and moves on to graduate study at Yale He starts his teaching career at Detroit s Wayne State University and spends the 1980s at Dartmouth College and the 1990s at Stanford University Porter writes about working to establish the first black studies program at Amherst the challenges of graduate study at Yale the infamous Dartmouth Review and his meetings with such writers and scholars as Ralph Ellison Tillie Olsen James Baldwin and Henry Louis Gates Jr He ends by reflecting on an unforeseen move to the University of Iowa which he ties into a return to the values of his childhood on a Georgia farm In his success and the fulfillment of his academic aspirations Porter represents an era a generation of possibility and achievement
