Paxton,2016-12-23 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world      Globalisation, FDI, Regional Integration and Sustainable Development Anthony Bende-Nabende,2017-10-05 This title was first published in 2002 Anthony Bende Nabende focuses on the ongoing globalization process which has sparked an unprecedented world wide debate He provides a one stop centre for a balanced coverage of the theoretical empirical and policy issues linking globalization with foreign direct investment regional economic integration and economic growth and sustainable development This stimulating book comprehensively explores the theoretical and empirical literature inter linking the aforementioned factors from the anti globalization activists viewpoint and from the pro globalization proponents perspective It proposes policies that individual countries should pursue based on the recognition that globalization generates both positive and negative effects These comprise policies required to maximise the economic benefits globalization may generate and those that aim to eliminate or at least minimize the negative development oriented effects globalization may engender and hence to propel sustainable development The book will be an essential guide for students academics and those involved in international economics environmental studies international relations and growth and development studies      The Economist ,1915      The Statesman's Year-Book 1978-79 J. Paxton,2016-12-26 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world      FDI, Regionalism, Government Policy and Endogenous Growth Anthony Bende-Nabende,2018-08-20 Published in 1999 this text investigates whether FDI caused spill over effects which have led to the economic growth of the ASEAN 5 economies and if that it so whether the ASEAN Preferential Trade Agreement APTA had a significant effect in attracting FDI to the region It takes into account the different levels of economic development of the countries under analysis The results from the structural static model suggest that FDI has stimulated economic growth through the human factors followed by technology transfer international trade and learning by doing and that the formation of APTA had a lagged influence on FDI inflows into the advantage of the more developed member countries and the disadvantage of the less developed countries Those from the multiplier dynamic effects analysis demonstrate that whereas the impact is immediate in the more developed politically stable and foreign investment friendly economies there is a time lag in those economies which are less developed and more hostile to FDI The analysis presents an empirical comparison of how the level of economic development affects the interaction of FDI regionalism and economic growth
