

Three Approaches to Intercultural Communication

	Social Science or Functionalist	Interpretative	Critical
Assumption of human behavior	Predictable	Creative and voluntary	Changeable
Method of study	Survey, observation	Participant observation field study	Textual analysis of media
Relationship of culture and communication	Communication influence by culture	Culture created and maintained through communication	Culture as a site of power struggle
Contribution of the approach	Identifies cultural variations; recognizes cultural differences in many aspects of communication but often does not consider context.	Emphasizes that communication and culture and cultural differences should be studied in contexts.	Recognizes the economic and political forces in cultural and communication; asserts that all intercultural interaction are characterized by power.
