Charles Haven Ladd Johnston, 1911 My dear Boys The sea stretches away from the land a vast sheet of unknown possibilities Now gray now blue now slate colored whipped into a thousand windrows by the storm churned into a seething mass of frothing spume and careening bubbles it pleases lulls then terrorizes and dismays Perpetually intervening as a barrier between peoples and their countries the wild sobbing ocean rises falls and roars in agony It is a stoppage to progress and contact between races of men and warring nations In the breasts of all souls slumbers the fire of adventure To penetrate the unknown to there find excitement battle treasure so that one's future life can be one of ease and indolence for this men have sacrificed the more stable occupations on land in order to push recklessly across the death dealing billows They have battled with the elements they have suffered dread diseases they have been tormented with thirst with a torrid sun and with strange weather they have sorrowed and they have sinned in order to gain fame fortune and renown Famous Privateersmen and Adventurers of the Sea
