Skeptics Of The Italian Renaissance 1908:

The Publishers Weekly, 1919 Catalogue of Books in the High Street Branch Lending Library Bolton (England).
Public Libraries, 1910 Heterodoxy, Spinozism, and Free Thought in Early-Eighteenth-Century Europe Silvia Berti, Françoise Charles-Daubert, R.H. Popkin, 2013-03-09 the oldest biography of Spinoza La Vie de Mr Spinoza which in the manuscript copies is often followed by L'Esprit de M Spinoza Margaret Jacob in her Radical Enlightenment contended that the Traite was written by a radical group of Freemasons in The Hague in the early eighteenth century Silvia Berti has offered evidence it was written by Jan Vroesen Various discussions in the early eighteenth century consider many possible authors from the Renaissance onwards to whom the work might be attributed The Trois imposteurs has attracted quite a bit of recent attention as one of the most significant irreligious clandestine writings available in the Enlightenment which is most important for understanding the development of religious scepticism radical deism and even atheism in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Scholars for the last couple of decades have been trying to assess when the work was actually written or compiled and by whom In view of the widespread distribution of manuscripts of the work all over Europe they have also been seeking to find out who was influenced by the work and what it represented for its time Hitherto unknown manuscripts are being turned up in public and private libraries all over Europe and the United States List of Books Forming the Transcultural Poetics and the Concept of the Poet Ranjan Ghosh, 2016-12-08 Critiquing the politics and dynamics of the transcultural poetics of reading literature this book demonstrates an ambitious understanding of the concept of the poet across a wide range of traditions Anglo American German French Arabic Chinese Sanskrit Bengali Urdu and philosophies of creativity that are rarely studied side by side Ghosh carves out unexplored spaces of negotiation and intersections between literature aesthetics and philosophy The book demonstrates an original method of global comparison that displaces the relatively staid and historicist categories that have underpinned comparative literature approaches so far since they rarely dare stray beyond issues of influence and schools or new world literature approaches that affirm cosmopolitanism and transnationalism as overarching themes Going beyond comparatism and reformulating the chronological patterns of reading this bold book introduces new methodologies of reading literature to configure the concept of the poet from Philip Sidney to T S Eliot reading the notion of the poet through completely new theoretical and epistemic triggers Commonly known texts and sometimes well circulated ideas are subjected to refreshing reading in what the author calls the transcultural now and in fusionised transpoetical matrices By moving between theories of poetry and literature that come from widely separated times contexts and cultures this book shows the relevance of canonical texts to a theory of the future as marked by post global concerns

Byron and Italy Peter Cochran, 2011-12-08 Byron and Italy tackles a subject to which no book has been devoted exclusively since the early 1940s Peter Cochran writes not just about Byron s relationships with Italian literature not just about his relationships with Italian women and not just about his relationship with Italian politics He writes about Byron s relationship with Italy as a whole seeing the poet s sojourn in Italy as a vain attempt to forge a new identity for himself Drawing on a wide range of up to date research including his own as editor of Teresa Guiccioli s Lord Byron s Life in Italy and the diary of John Cam Hobhouse Cochran traces numerous threads of evidence showing how the critical reception Byron s poetry received from Italian critics gave him a new sense of self worth and how his experience of Italian Carnival and of the Italian mock heroic tradition in verse gave him a new idea of who he was and of what poetry was about Among much else the book includes new material on the Carbonari and on Byron s reading of Ugo Foscolo and an appendix containing translations of all known Italian and Austrian police reports on Byron and his entourage

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature George Watson, Ian Roy Willison, 1974

The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism: Volume 3, The Renaissance George Alexander Kennedy, Glyn P. Norton, 1989 This 1999 volume was the first to explore as part of an unbroken continuum the critical legacy both of the humanist rediscovery of ancient learning and of its neoclassical reformulation Focused on what is arguably the most complex phase in the transmission of the Western literary critical heritage the book encompasses those issues that helped shape the way European writers thought about literature from the late Middle Ages to the late seventeenth century These issues touched almost every facet of Western intellectual endeavour as well as the historical cultural social scientific and technological contexts in which that activity evolved From the interpretative reassessment of the major ancient poetic texts this volume addresses the emergence of the literary critic in Europe by exploring poetics prose fiction contexts of criticism neoclassicism and national developments Sixty one chapters by internationally respected scholars are supported by an introduction detailed bibliographies for further investigation and a full index List of Books

Forming the Reference Library in the Reading Room of the British Museum British Museum.
