Some Early Impressions Leslie Stephen, 1924 Religion Around Virginia Woolf Stephanie Paulsell, 2020-01-24

spanned a half century He shared his enthusiasm through frequent publication of portraits vignettes and essays he also compiled much of his writing into a book manuscript His subjects were his customers friends and neighbors their stories of historic events such as the Long Walk and their life as he understood it Evans s writings were colored by his uncommon friendship and familiarity with Navajo people but also by who he was a trader folk artist and Mormon Inspired by sand paintings Evans appropriated their sacred images for his own paintings of murals and everyday objects In his writing he preserved unique records of Navajo history and of individuals about whom little biographical information otherwise remains Much of that was based on what he heard from his Navajo acquaintances but it also drew on his direct observations and particular beliefs about the people their culture and their history Evans s granddaughter Susan E Woods collaborated with historian Robert S McPherson author of numerous books on Navajo and Four Corners history to prepare and publish Will Evans s manuscript which is illustrated with a remarkable and rare selection of photos from the collections of Evans and his colleagues
