Something In My Eye:

Something in My Eye Michael Jeffrey Lee, 2012-01-31 An intriguing and highly original debut short story collection winner of the Mary McCarthy Prize in Short Fiction Booklist Michael Jeffrey Lee's stories are bizarre and smart and stilted like dystopic fables told by a redneck Samuel Beckett Outcasts hunker under bridges or hole up in bars waiting for the hurricane to hit Lee's forests are full of menace too unseen crowds gather at the tree line and bands of petty crooks and marauders bluster their way into suicidal games of one upmanship In Something In My Eye violence and idleness are always in tension ratcheting up and down with an eerie and effortless force Diction leaps between registers with the same vertiginous swoops moving from courtly formality to a slang that is the characters own It's a masterful performance and Lee's inventiveness accomplishes that very rare feat hyper stylized structure and language that offer both clarity and turbulence never allowing technique to obscure what's most important a direct address that makes visible those truths we'd rather not see Lee's stories are intriguing and highly original with a bent toward the weird both in character and worldview He is a master of voice portraying the lives of men who are lost lonely and disturbed Booklist Lee is very successful in creating a dream like emotionally disconnected state throughout with intentionally stilted dialogue and plots that tend to revolve around forms of symbolic gestures physical violence or sexual deviance Publishers Weekly

In the Eye of Heaven David Keck, 2007-03-06 A fiercely original epic fantasy debut

The Eye and the Mind C. Landesman, 1993-10-31 This book is a discussion of some of the major philosophical problems centering around the topic of sense perception and the foundations of human knowledge It begins with a characterization of our common sense understanding of the role of the senses in the acquisition of belief and it argues that scientific accounts of the processes of perception undermine salient parts of this understanding The naive point of view of direct realism cannot be sustained in the light of a scientifically instructed understanding of perception This critique of direct realism points to the correctness of the representative theory of perception characteristic of such early modern philosophers as Descartes and Locke and it also endorses the subjective turn that they defended It argues that these positions do not require introducing sense data into the picture and thus it avoids the intractable problems that the sense datum philosophy introduces In addition several versions of cognitive accounts of sense perception are criticized with the result that it is unnecessary to characterize sensory processes in intentional terms The book then turns to a leading question introduced into modern philosophy by Descartes and Locke the question of the accuracy of the information delivered by the senses to our faculty of belief In particular how accurate are our representations of the secondary qualities The case of color is considered in detail

What My Eyes Have Seen In My Lifetime Shontavia Brown, 2022-09-02 This is a summary of the book entitled A Blind Man's Tale This book depicts what my eyes have seen within my lifetime from the late 1950's until 2019 This book is a story about possible threats that are being placed against our Democracy and it gives a brief synopsis of some of the possible solutions to various problems that we currently face

within our Great Nation today This book is based upon World Leaders from then and until now who have played a key role in the vast history of our Nation and Democracy which has now found us in a State of Disarray We are in a situation knowing that half of these World Leaders appear to have not made the right decisions over the many years and the ones who did make the right decisions the Nation does not approve That s why I base the book on a lot of ideals that are formulated from greenhouse gases to the forest preserves burning to us starting a Nuclear War with North Korea So all of this is seen through the persona of how long are we going to keep doing the same old things over and over again by kicking the same old can down the road We appear to keep making the same old mistakes over and over again with all of these old and outdated laws from centuries long ago We continue to call ourselves the Number One Nation of the World and yet every Leader that enters into office continues to set their own private agenda And it s not even an agenda to help out our country nor the planet Earth No one appears to be looking out for the greater good of this Nation and it appears to be a continual agenda of the same old business as usual with profit over people with both the Middle Class and the Lower Income Families left to suffer and pay the costs of it all I would like for the reader to be able to grasp upon some new ways of thinking to spread love and peace immediately deploy steps to save our natural resources and put aside our differences so that we can work together as one United Front for the preservation of both our planet and mankind Let s all join together right now before it s too late to save our entire world May you continue to be an avid reader and change maker Thanks for listening The Bellman ,1914

Composition of California Shellmounds Edward Winslow Gifford,1916 English Idioms Matthew Evanoff,2020-10-20 Learning English idioms can be difficult for ESL speakers This book will help simplify some of the common words and expressions native English speakers use Use it as a reference or read it as a learning exercise and you will improve your English in no time at all The Corner of Your Eye Kate Lyons,2006-05-01 Six months ago twelve year old Flo ran away from home and then just disappeared Her mother Lucy having retreated to a country town to find a new life now hears a whisper that sets her again on the long cold trail She s never believed that Flo is dead and has her suspicions about who might be responsible for her disappearance Lucy returns to Sydney with only her wits her anger and her fierce determination to find the truth about her own lies English-Cheyenne Dictionary Rodolphe Charles Petter,1915 Little Wounds, and Other Dark Tales Lee Glenwright,2022-07-18 Hell I ll tell you what Hell is It s doing the thing that you love over and over again for all eternity until that thing you love becomes something that you hate A pair of evangelical ministers roll up to a backwater town only to realise far too late that they re way out of their depth A petty thief desperate for his next fix gets more than he bargained for when he breaks into the wrong house The last girl standing prepares to face off against a seemingly unstoppable enemy or so it seems A journalist regales a friend with stories of an unidentified serial killer leading to the uncovering of some disturbing recollections Twelve stories of dark fiction from Lee Glenwright author of Mutt Ripe and Others and Insatiable Conversations on Consciousness Susan Blackmore,2006-01-01 In Conversations on

Consciousness Susan Blackmore interviews some of the great minds of our time a who s who of eminent thinkers all of whom have devoted much of their lives to understanding the concept of consciousness The interviewees ranging from major philosophers to renowned scientists talk candidly with Blackmore about some of the key philosophical issues confronting us in a series of conversations that are revealing insightful and stimulating They ruminate on the nature of consciousness is it something apart from the brain and discuss if it is even possible to understand the human mind Some of these thinkers say no but most believe that we will pierce the mystery surrounding consciousness and that neuroscience will provide the key Blackmore goes beyond the issue of consciousness to ask other intriguing questions Is there free will A question which yields many conflicted replies with most saying yes and no If not how does this effect the way you live your life and more broadly how has your work changed the way you live Paired with an introduction and extensive glossary that provide helpful background information these provocative conversations illuminate how some of the greatest minds tackle some of the most difficult questions about human nature

Suds in Your Eye Mary Lasswell, 2016-05-03 Life is ripe with good times and plenty of beer when Mrs Feeley welcomes her new friend the musical Miss Tinkham to share her San Diego home and junkyard Noah s Ark It s not long before the gourmet culinarian Mrs Rasmussen moves in too and the three elderly ladies bask in their joie de vivre But the party is cut short when they discover the property taxes have been pocketed by a swindling lawyer The three wisecracking women must use their collective smarts to raise the money before they lose their home and maybe fit in a trip to Tijuana if they can earn a little extra With this first book of Mary Lasswell s to feature the Arkies you ll be hard pressed to not grin along with the charm of Lasswell s characters Go back to the 40s in this authentic piece of Americana and see how the story of your new three favorite ladies begins

The Law Times Reports ,1902 Two Hundred Genuine Instances of Divine Healing ,1911 The Eye of the Sibyl ,1992-01-01 A collection of stories by the celebrated science fiction writer includes never before published selections as well as the author s standards The Little Black Box and The Pre Person among them By the author of The Man in the High Castle Original Gurkha Kailash Limbu, 2015-05-21 In this Sunday Times Top Ten bestselling memoir that reads like a thriller Joanna Lumley Colour Sargent Kailash Limbu shares a riveting account of his life as a Gurkha soldier marking the first time in its two hundred year history that a soldier of the Brigade of Gurkhas has been given permission to tell his story in his own words In the summer of 2006 Colour Sargeant Kailash Limbu s platoon was sent to relieve and occupy a police compound in the town of Now Zad in Helmand He was told to prepare for a forty eight hour operation In the end he and his men were under siege for thirty one days one of the longest such sieges in the whole of the Afghan campaign Kailash Limbu recalls the terrifying and exciting details of those thirty one days in which they killed an estimated one hundred Taliban fighters and intersperses them with the story of his own life as a villager from the Himalayas He grew up in a place without roads or electricity and didn t see a car until he was fifteen Kailash s descriptions of Gurkha training and rituals including how to use the lethal Kukri knife are eye opening and fascinating They combine with the story of his time in Helmand to create a unique account of one man's life as a Gurkha I was completely bowled over by Kailash's book and read it with a beating heart and dry mouth I felt as though I was at his side hearing the shells and bullets enjoying the jokes and listening in the scary dead of night The skill with which he has included his childhood and training is immense always discovered with ease in the narrative it actually felt as though I was watching was IN a film with him It brought me nearer than I have ever been not only to the mind of the universal soldier but to a hill boy of Nepal and a hugely impressive Gurkha I raced through it and couldn't put it down it reads like a thriller If you want to know anything about the Gurkhas read this book and be prepared for a thrilling and dangerous trip Joanna Lumley
