Perchance to Dream Stan Erisman,2021-10-22 The arrival of two wonderful daughters does a great deal to make up for Stan s feeling obliged to bring his painting career to an untimely end but all his efforts to save his marriage prove futile Perchance to Dream the sixth and final book in the six part Hindsight series charts the slow disintegration of that doomed relationship Fortunately Stan has by this time discovered the therapeutic value that writing has had for him in his life s crises Now with two small children depending on him he sorely needs a swift recovery without the help of booze Writing about his crisis helps him structure his thoughts deal with his problems and achieve a new and stronger will to live With Bob again cheering him on Stan feels prepared for a whole new life Love comes to him totally unexpectedly serendipitously delightfully in the form of Karin It feels almost too good to be true Now after more than 33 years of growing love and harmony the test of time has been well and truly passed Although the narrative of Perchance to Dream ends at the close of 1988 it is followed by an Afterword that ties up some of the loose ends and brings several narrative threads up to date Stan began working on material for Hindsight some 43 years before completing it Most of this work was done between 2007 and 2021 Enjoy
