became a cross road of desert and Top End musical styles As a result the Gurindji people learnt songs from the Mudburra who came further east the Bilinarra from the north the Nyininy from the west and the Warlpiri from the south This book is the first detailed documentation of wajarra public songs performed by the Gurindji people in response to contemporary events in their community Featuring five song sets known as Laka Mintiwarra Kamul Juntara and Freedom Day it is an exploration of the cultural exchange between Indigenous communities that was fostered by their involvement in the pastoral industry Publisher s website Songs of the Arabian Red Sea Dionisius A. Agius, Muhammad Zafer Alhazmi, Hasan Hujairi, 2025-07-24 Song and music have always played an important part in the cultural identity of the mariners and coastal peoples of the Red Sea While previous studies on the maritime culture of this region have focused on the sailing vessel the dhow and seafaring communities this is the first book to examine its rich musical repertoire Using fieldwork conducted along the Hijaz and Upper Tihama coasts The Songs of the Arabian Red Sea documents examples of different musical forms and styles as well as the stories of older mariners who describe the contexts in which songs were sung from sea shanties during the working day to soulful ballads about home and loved ones at night Presenting the songs and their lyrics in the context of the geography culture oral history and musicology of the region the book reveals the complex and connected network that influenced their development and the vital place of song and music for diverse communities of the region
