Sixty Instant Messages To Tom Moore:

Sixty Instant Messages to Tom Moore Paul Muldoon, Lee Gurga, 2005 Haiku in English Jim Kacian, Philip Rowland, Allan Burns, 2013-08-19 The first anthology to map the full range of haiku in the English tradition Haiku in English is an anthology of more than 800 brilliantly chosen poems that were originally written in English by over 200 poets from around the world Although haiku originated as a Japanese art form it has found a welcome home in the English speaking world This collection tells the story for the first time of Anglophone haiku charting its evolution over the last one hundred years and placing it within its historical and literary context It features an engaging introduction by former U S poet laureate Billy Collins and an insightful historical overview by leading haiku poet editor and publisher Jim Kacian The selections range from the first fully realized haiku in English Ezra Pound's In a Station of the Metro to plentiful examples by haiku virtuosos such as John Wills Marlene Mountain Nick Virgilio and Raymond Roseliep and to investigations into the genre by eminent poets like John Ashbery Allen Ginsberg and Seamus Heaney The editors explore the genre's changing forms and themes highlighting its vitality and its breadth of poetic styles and content Among the many poems on offer are organic form experiments by E E Cummings and Michael McClure evocations of black culture by Richard Wright and Sonia Sanchez and the seminal efforts of Jack Kerouac Horse Latitudes Paul Muldoon, 2025-06-25 The title of Horse Latitudes Paul Muldoon's tenth collection of poetry refers to those areas thirty degrees north and south of the equator where sailing ships tend to be becalmed where stasis if not stagnation is the order of the day From Bosworth Field to Beijing the Boyne to Bull Run from a series of text messages to the nineteenth century Irish poet Tom Moore to an elegy for Warren Zevon and from post Agreement Ireland to George W Bush's America this book presents us with fields of battle and fields of debate in which we often seem to have come to a standstill but in which language that has been debased may yet be restructured and made current to our predicament Horse Latitudes is a triumphant new collection by one of the most esteemed poets of our time The Japanese Effect in Contemporary Irish Poetry Irene De Angelis, 2016-04-30 The Japanese Effect in Contemporary Irish Poetry provides a stimulating original and lively analysis of the Irish Japanese literary connection from the early 1960s to 2007 While for some this may partly remain Oscar Wilde's mode of style this book will show that there is more of Japan in the work of contemporary Irish poets than a tinkling of china and tea into china Drawing on unpublished new sources Irene De Angelis includes poets from a broad range of cultural backgrounds with richly varied styles Seamus Heaney Derek Mahon Ciaran Carson and Paul Muldoon together with younger poets such as Sinéad Morrissey and Joseph Woods Including close readings of selected poems this is an indispensable companion for all those interested in the broader historical and cultural research on the effect of oriental literature in modernist and postmodernist Irish poetry The Poetry of Paul Muldoon Jefferson Holdridge, 2008-08-01 The Poetry of Paul Muldoon introduces the student and general reader to the critical discussion surrounding Muldoon's oeuvre as well as to his major themes It examines the poet's meditations on culture and nature human and animal speculations on the act of perception figures fragmented by the Troubles and philosophical considerations of colonisation It then discusses what rank among the most beautiful and intricate elegies of our time For Muldoon art's complicity in suffering is a political self-indicting question which his best poems endeavour to answer If sometimes this Pulitzer Prize winner insists that art has a positive role to play at other times he fears that it merely feeds off the carnage This critical book shows how for Muldoon art should not merely repeat the devastation of the world although he is afraid that it does and engages in bitter moral despair that places his work among the very best any contemporary poet has written The Poetry of Paul Muldoon unearths difficult questions of form with a metaphysical significance that is suitable to our times

The Life of Words David-Antoine Williams, 2020-05-07 For centuries investigations into the origins of words were entwined with investigations into the origins of humanity and the cosmos With the development of modern etymological practice in the nineteenth century however many cherished etymologies were shown to be impossible and the very idea of original true meaning asserted in the etymology of etymology declared a fallacy Structural linguistics later held that the relationship between sound and meaning in language was arbitrary or unmotivated a truth that has survived with small modification until today On the other hand the relationship between sound and meaning has been a prime motivator of poems at all times throughout history The Life of Words studies a selection of poets inhabiting our Age of the Arbitrary whose auditory semantic sensibilities have additionally been motivated by a historical sense of the language troubled as it may be by claims and counterclaims of fallacy or true meaning Arguing that etymology activates peculiar kinds of epistemology in the modern poem the book pays extended attention to poems by G M Hopkins Anne Waldman Ciaran Carson and Anne Carson and to the collected works of Geoffrey Hill Paul Muldoon Seamus Heaney R F Langley and J H Prynne
